f
Z
7817
N420s
1958:1
REF

SCHOLA RELIGIONIS PACIFICA
COND AD 1924
PRO
VERITATE
ET REGNO
DEI
CHARLES HOLBROOK LIBRARY
Pacific School of Religion

New York. Missionary research library

Selected List

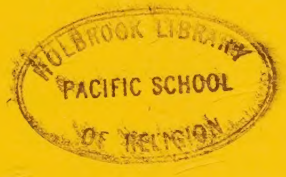
CURRENT BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS

(Items published in 1956, 1957, and 1958 only)

Added to the collection of

THE MISSIONARY RESEARCH LIBRARY

Between January 1, 1958 and June 30, 1958



3041 Broadway
New York 27, New York

59432

f
Z
7817
N420s
1958:1
Ref.

C O N T E N T S

I. HISTORY
- A. History of Missions 1
- B. History of Missionary Societies 1
- C. Church History 2
- D. Ecumenical Movement; Church Union and Cooperation. 3
- E. Roman Catholic Missions 3

II. BIOGRAPHY
- A. Missionaries 5
- B. National Christians 6
- C. General 6

III. THEORY AND PRINCIPLES OF MISSIONS; THEOLOGY OF MISSIONS.. 7

IV. MISSIONARY METHODS
- A. Evangelism and Church Work; Communication of the Gospel 8
- B. Christian Education 8
- C. Christian Literature and Literacy Education; Bible Translation 8
- D. Audio-Visual Communications 9
- E. Medical Missions 9
- F. Rural and Agricultural Missions 9
- G. General Description of Missionary Activities 9
- H. Administration and Promotion of Missions; Training of Missionary Personnel 10
- I. Other Methods and Problems 10

V. REFERENCE
- A. Missions 11
- B. Yearbooks and Directories 11
- C. Bibliographies and General 12

VI. AREAS AND COUNTRIES: (1) GENERAL (2) MISSIONS, CHURCHES
- A. North America 14
- B. The Caribbean Islands and the Guianas 15
- C. Latin America 15
- D. Europe 17
- E. Africa (South of the Sahara) 18
- F. Near East, Middle East and North Africa 20
- G. Central Asia 22
- H. Southern Asia 23
- I. South East Asia 24
- J. East Asia 26
- K. Pacific Islands 30
- L. Australia and New Zealand 31
- M. General 31

VII. CHRISTIANITY AND NON-CHRISTIAN RELIGIONS; OTHER IDEOLOGIES
A. Religions of Primitive Peoples 31
B. The Great Non-Christian Religions 32
C. Judaism 34
D. Communism 35
E. General and Other Religions 36

VIII. SOCIAL AND POLITICAL SCIENCE 37

IX. ANTHROPOLOGY AND RELATED SUBJECTS 39

X. THEOLOGICAL, WORSHIP AND DEVOTIONAL 39

XI. PUBLICATIONS OF THE MISSIONARY RESEARCH LIBRARY 41

Digitized by the Internet Archive
in 2025

https://archive.org/details/international-bulletin-of-mission-research_1958_1

FOREWORD

The SELECTED LIST OF CURRENT BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS is published twice a year. The present issue includes accessions from January through June, 1958; no titles published before 1956 are listed. Only the more important pamphlets have been included, and a few selected government documents. Periodicals and reports are not listed.

The Missionary Research Library does not act as agent for purchasing books. Orders should be sent direct to the publishers or through your own book agency. Prices listed for United Nations publications are United States prices since these publications may be obtained at the International Documents Service of Columbia University Press in New York City. In the case of foreign publications, the price has been given in the currency of the country of publication whenever this information is readily available. Your local book agent or library can indicate where foreign publications may be secured in this country. Friendship Press is the agent for Edinburgh House and the World Dominion Press.

The staff of the Missionary Research Library cooperates in the preparation of book annotations for the Selected List.

Werner Rode
Associate Librarian

Additional copies of this Selected List and of previous annual Selected Lists may be purchased at fifty cents each. Payment with order will be appreciated.

MISSIONARY RESEARCH LIBRARY
3041 Broadway
New York 27, New York

July, 1958

I. HISTORY

A. HISTORY OF MISSIONS

1. Groves, C. P.
The Planting of Christianity in Africa. v. 4. London, Lutterworth Press, 1958. 389 p. 2/5/- The final volume of the most comprehensive history of African missions in the English language. This volume covers the period from 1914 to 1954.

2. Higgins, John Seville.
One Faith and Fellowship. The Missionary Story of the Anglican Communion. Greenwich, Conn., Seabury Press, 1958. 226 p. $4.50 History of the expansion of the Anglican Communion from its earliest days, including nineteen large pictorial maps and a closing chapter on the future of Anglicanism.

3. Rego, Da Silva.
Curso de Missionologia. Lisboa, Agencia Geral do Ultramar, 1956. 700 p. A world history of Portuguese Missions.

4. Broomfield, Gerald W.
Towards Freedom. London, The Universities' Mission to Central Africa, 1957. 135 p. $1.50 A popular account of the history and accomplishments of the Universities' Mission in Central Africa during the century of its operation.

See also: 2, 15, 23, 25, 207, 214.

B. HISTORY OF MISSIONARY SOCIETIES

5. Jester, William L.
Something New. Nashville, Tenn., Convention Press, 1957. 102 p. $ .60 A study book for young people on Southern Baptist work in Nigeria, with emphasis on the rapid changes taking place at the beginning of the second century of mission work by this board.

6. Jobson, Orville D.
Conquering Oubangui-Chari for Christ. Winona Lake, Ind., Brethren Missionary Herald, 1957. 160 p. $1.50 A history of forty years' work by the Brethren Church (Progressive) in this section of French Equatorial Africa, resulting in a church membership of twenty thousand.

7. Mitchell, David.
Seventh Day Adventists Faith in Action. N.Y., Vantage Press, 1958. 334 p. $3.50 Excellent study of the movement's history, its fantastic growth and increasing influence in virtually all countries of the world.

8. Patterson, Ira N.
Continent in Commotion. Nashville, Tenn., Convention Press, 1957. 155 p. $ .60 Adult study book on Southern Baptist work in Nigeria, Ghana, Southern Rhodesia, and East Africa, with descriptions of current conditions in each country.

9. Solberg, Richard W.
As between Brothers; the Story of Lutheran Response to World Need. Minneapolis, Minn., Augsburg Publishing House, 1957. 224 p. $3.00 Historical record of the greatest single relief and reconstruction effort in world Protestantism, a story of people all over the world being united by acts of love.

10. Syrdal, Rolf A.
Mission in Japan. Minneapolis, Minn., Augsburg Publishing House, 1957. 48 p. A study manual on the beginnings of Christianity in Japan and the growth of the Church to the present time, with emphasis on Lutheran Church development. Contains many excellent photographs, but unfortunately has errors in the spelling of Japanese words, and in some dates.

11. Webb, Pauline M.
Women of Our Company. London, Cargate Press, 1958. 144 p. 5/- Stories of women at work overseas in honor of the Centenary of the Women's Work of the Methodist Missionary Society.

12. Williamson, H. R.
British Baptists in China, 1845-1952. London, Carey Kingsgate Press, 1957. 382 p. 21/- The author, a notable missionary leader, narrates in detail the Baptist Missionary Society's history in China, and appraises the results of its work. The last chapter is on "The Church in China Today." Spellings of geographical names unfortunately follow old forms rather than those in current use today.

See also: 1, 2, 13, 15, 16, 31, 68, 72, 132, 213, 242, 244.

C. CHURCH HISTORY

13. Baxter, Norman Allen.
History of the Freewill Baptists; a Study in New England Separatism. Rochester, N.Y., American Baptist Historical Society, 1957. 212 p. $4.75 Important contribution to understanding of the influence of Baptists on American life, with a chapter on "mission outreach and social reform" which includes foreign missions.

14. Bennett, Wallace.
Why I Am a Mormon. N.Y., Edinburgh, Toronto, Thomas Nelson, 1958. 256 p. $2.75 Outline of the history, doctrine, and practice of the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter-Day Saints, with a chapter on missionary outreach at home and abroad.

15. Morgan, Dewi.
The Bishops Come to Lambeth. London, A. R. Mowbray (N.Y., Morehouse-Gorham), 1957. 142 p. 5/- ($1.25) Historical sketch of the expansion of the Anglican Church overseas, written in preparation for the decennial meeting of bishops at Lambeth Palace in 1958.

16.
One Hundred Years in the New World. Grand Rapids, Mich., The Centennial Committee of the Christian Reformed Church, 1957. 218 p. $3.95 "The story of the Christian Reformed Church from 1857 to 1957: Its origin, growth, and institutional activities; together with an account of the celebration of its anniversary in its centennial year," including an article on "Indian and Foreign Missions" by Henry J. Evenhouse.

See also: 2, 132.

D. ECUMENICAL MOVEMENT; CHURCH UNION AND COOPERATION

17. Bell, G. K. A., ed.
Documents on Christian Unity. Fourth Series, 1948-57. London, Oxford University Press, 1958. 243 p. 21/- The documents cover the period since 1948, including the conferences of Lambeth, Amsterdam, and Evanston, as well as pronouncements of the Roman Catholic and Orthodox Churches and documents on relations between the older and younger churches.

18. Engström, Olle.
Hemmaekumenik; en Studiebok. (Nordiska Ekumeniska Institutetsskriftserie Nr. 13) Stockholm, Missionsförbundets Förlag, 1957. 249 p. Kr. 10/
Study book in ecumenical theology by various Swedish scholars, including an article by Bengt Sundkler on missions and the ecumenical movement.

19. Kik, J. Marcellus.
Ecumenism and the Evangelical. Philadelphia, Presbyterian and Reformed Publishing Company, 1958. 152 p. $3.50 Theory and principle of ecumenism today, the biblical position on the unity of the Church, and the unfolding of the evangelical nature of the Church, with an outlook on "the coming great Church."

20. Minear, Paul S., ed.
The Nature of the Unity We Seek. St. Louis, Mo. The Bethany Press, 1958. 304 p. $4.00 "Official Report of The North American Conference on Faith and Order, September 3-10, 1957, Oberlin, Ohio."

21. Nelson, Robert J.
One Lord, One Church. (World Christian Books, no. 21) London, Lutterworth Press, 1958. 96 p. 2/6 The principle of unity and the perennial challenge to achieve it are under close scrutiny in this historical and systematic study.

See also: 15, 61, 81, 104, 113, 181, 203.

E. ROMAN CATHOLIC MISSIONS

22. Bane, Martin J.
Catholic Pioneers in West Africa. Dublin, Clonmore and Reynolds, 1956. 220 p. $4.50 A history of five centuries of Roman Catholic work, beginning in 1450 with the arrival of the Franciscan friar, Bolano, in Upper Guinea, and extending to the present.

23. Camps, Arnulf, O.F.M.
Jerome Xavier, S.J. and the Muslims of the Mongol Empire: Controversial Works and Missionary Activity. (Neue Zeitschrift für Missionswissenschaft, Supplementa 6) Schöneck-Beckenried, Switzerland, Nouvelle Revue de Science Missionaire, 1957. 260 p. DM 32.70 Short biography of Jerome Xavier and critical list of his writings; a description of the religious situation in the Mogul Empire during the reign of Akbar and Jahangir, 1556-1627; Xavier's attitude toward Islam; and an exposé of the content of his controversial writings.

24. Cegielka, Francis A., S.A.C.
Life on Rocks Among the Natives of the Union of South Africa. North Tonawanda, N.Y., Pallottinum, 1957. 188 p. $3.00 Brief history and account of present conditions of Roman Catholic work in the Union of South Africa.

25. Delacroix, S., ed.
Histoire Universelle des Missions Catholiques. Les Missions des Origines au XVI^{e} Siècle. Par M. Daniel-Rops et al. Paris, Librairie Grund, 1956. 365 p. $10.00 This volume in the series on the universal history of Roman Catholic missions traces the development of missions from the early beginnings to the 16th century; it is profusely illustrated, contains maps and a selected bibliography on the individual chapters.

26. Hales, E. E. Y.
The Catholic Church in the Modern World. Garden City, N.Y., Hanover House, 1958. 312 p. $4.50 "A survey from the French revolution to the present," this interesting book is a popular history of the Catholic Church's existence in turbulent times when she was often the prime target of attack.

27. Hay, Malcolm.
Failure in the Far East; Why and How the Breach Between the Western World and China First Began. Philadelphia, Dufour Editions, 1957. 202 p. $4.50
New research into the reasons for the withdrawal of Jesuit missions from the Far East, especially China, in the seventeenth century. From a study of formerly unpublished correspondence, the author concludes that the administrative incompetence of the Roman Curia and the disruptive influence of the intolerant Jansenists, with their implacable opposition to universal Christianity, were the chief causes.

28. Mary Just, Sister.
Digests of Catholic Mission History. (World Horizon Reports, no. 20) Maryknoll, N.Y., Maryknoll Publications, 1957. 136 p. $1.00 Outline history with good bibliographic references, useful charts, and a list of dates of missionary significance.

29. Pius XII.
The Future of Africa. The Encyclical Fidei Donum. London, Sword of the Spirit, 1957. 24p. -/9 A complete translation of the Encyclical Letter, Fidei Donum, "On the Present Conditions of the Catholic Missions, Especially in Africa," dated April 27, 1957.

30. Regan, Joseph W., M.M.
The Philippines: Christian Bulwark in Asia. (World Horizon Reports, no. 21) Maryknoll, N.Y., Maryknoll Publications, 1957. 41 p. $ .50 "Dramatic story of how the Filipinos received the Catholic faith and have kept this heritage through all the ups and downs of their history."

31. Schoeters, K., S.J.
Konflikt in Kongo. E.P. EM. van Hencxthoven, S.J. (1852-1906), Stichter van de Kwango-Missie en van de "Kapel-Hoeven". Brussel, De Seinhoorn, 1956. 321 p. $3.75 Biography of the eminent Jesuit missionary to the Belgian Congo; a history of the Kwango mission of which he was the founder, and its conflict with Protestant mission work.

32. Society of African Missions (Irish Province).
One Hundred Years of Missionary Achievement, 1856-1956. Cork, Ireland, African Missions, 1956. 96 p. $1.25 The story of a century of work in West Africa by the Society organized by Bishop Joseph de Marion Bresillac, who emphasized adaptation of the Church to the people.

See also: 39, 42, 56, 75, 79, 83, 134, 189.

II. BIOGRAPHY

A. MISSIONARIES

33. Ashmore, Ann L.
The Call of the Congo. Nashville, Tenn., Pathenon Press, 1958. 173 p. $3.00 A biography of Dr. & Mrs. Bryant Lewis, medical missionaries of the Methodist Board to the Atetela people of the Congo.

34. Calverley, Eleanor T., M.D.
My Arabian Days and Nights. N.Y., Thomas Y. Crowell Company, 1958. 182 p. $2.95 Autobiography of a medical missionary among Muslim Arabs in the shaikdom of Kuwait.

35. Doell, E.W.
Hospital in the Bush. N.Y., Roy Publishers. 216 p. $4.50 Autobiography of a medical missionary in Southern Rhodesia at Themba.

36. Forsberg, Malcolm.
Land Beyond the Nile. N.Y., Harper, 1958. 232 p. $3.95. "The real-life drama of a dedicated and dauntless missionary couple who brought light to primitive tribes in Ethiopia and the Sudan."

37. Gelfand, Michael, M.D.
Livingstone the Doctor; His Life and Travels. Oxford, Blackwell, 1957. 333 p. $10.50 A medical specialist in the tropical diseases of Africa writes on Livingstone as a doctor and on the diseases of Africa which Livingstone confronted during his journeys.

38. Harrison, Ann M.
A Tool in His Hand. N.Y., Friendship Press, 1958. 170 p. $2.75 Biography of the missionary doctor Paul Harrison, widely known as "Harrison of Arabia", as told by his wife; a "tale of a great mission enterprise."

39. Kasbauer, Sixta.
Du hast für mich dein Herz verschwendet; katholisches Frauenheldentum in China. Kevelaer, Deutschland, Verlag Butzon & Becker, 1956. 280 p. DM 8.80 Though in fictional form, this biographical account of the work of a Roman Catholic Sister and missionary paints a vivid picture of the life and tribulations under the Communist regime.

40. Kuhn, Isobel.
Green Leaf in Drought-Time; the Story of the Escape of the Last C.I.M. Missionaries from Communist China. Chicago, Moody Press, 1957. 160 p. $2.50 A tensely interesting narrative, revealing the trials which China missionaries suffered under Communist accusation, and also the vibrant faith in God's special protection which is characteristic of the China Inland Mission.

41. ------.
In the Arena. Chicago, Moody Press, 1958. 222 p. $3.00 Experiences and insights of a missionary under the China Inland Mission from 1929-49 with the Lisu tribe in China, entering Thialand in 1952 to work among the Lisu people there.

42. Leclercq, Jacques.
Thunder in the Distance; the Life of Pere Lebbe. Translated by George Lamb. N.Y., Sheed & Ward, 1958. 322 p. $5.00 Story of the Belgian Roman Catholic bishop who, as a far-seeing and devoted missionary to China, was largely instrumental in bringing about a strong Chinese bishopric. Very well written.

43. Siegfried, Ruth.
Missionary Diary. Translated from the German by Elisabeth Balshaitis. London, Salvationist Publishing and Supplies, 1956. 208 p. 8/6 A beautifully written diary of two terms of service by a French Salvation Army teacher in Leopoldville and Brazzaville. Contains a brief appendix about a visit to Dr. Albert Schweitzer, a close friend of the author.

44. Trout, Jessie M.
Bertha Fidelia; Her Story. St. Louis, Mo., Bethany Press, 1957. 128 p. $2.50 Written in autobiographical style, this is a story of the life of a missionary of the Disciples of Christ, who served in Japan from 1898 to 1937 and who founded the well-known Margaret K. Long Girls' School (known in Japan as Joshi Sei Gakuin).

See also: 11, 31, 69, 70, 122, 177, 214, 242.

B. NATIONAL CHRISTIANS

45. Beyreuther, Erich.
Der junge Zinzendorf. Marburg, Deutschland, Franke-Buchhandlung, 1957. 238 p. DM 8.80 Biography of the young Zinzendorf who gave the Moravian Brethren and the pietistic movement centering in Herrenhut the spiritual leadership which made this form of Christian faith a world-wide movement.

46. Hargreaves, J.D.
A Life of Sir Samuel Lewis. (West African History Series) London, Oxford University Press, 1958. 112 p. $1.00 The biography of Sir Samuel Lewis, a Methodist layman active in his church, mayor of Freetown three times, a leading lawyer in Sierra Leone during the latter half of the 19th century, and the first African to be knighted.

See also: 152.

C. GENERAL

47.
Chiang Kai-Shek; a Pictorial Biography of the President of the Republic of China. Taipei, China Publishing Company, 1957. 179 p. About 350 photographs with descriptive titles, illustrating the life story of Chiang Kai-shek from his youth until the present time.

48. Chou, Hsiang-Kuang.
T'ai Hsu; His Life and Teachings. Allahabad, India, Indo-Chinese Literature Publications, 1957. 74 p. $1.50 Biographical sketch and outline of the teachings of this eminent Chinese Buddhist abbot of our time.

49. Koyama, Itoko.
Nagako; Empress of Japan. N.Y., John Day, 1958. 189 p. $3.50 Insight into the thinking of the imperial family of Japan is furnished in this unique book. Not only the attitudes of the Empress, but also of the Emperor, are revealed regarding both personal and international relations.

50. Maurice, Albert.
H. M. Stanley: Unpublished Letters. N.Y., Philosophical Library, 1957. 183 p. $7.50 Hitherto unpublished portions of a "Letter Book" containing missives addressed to King Leopold II, Strauch, and various colleagues during the year 1881-1882 while Stanley was on the expedition which opened up the Congo. (The original edition appeared in French in 1955 under the title: Stanley: Lettres Inédites, published in Brussels.)

51. Modupe (Prince).
I Was a Savage. N.Y., Harcourt, Brace, 1957. 185 p. $3.95 A former prince of an African tribe of French Guinea writes of his boyhood and youth with appreciation for the cultural values of his people.

52. Noble, John.
I Was a Slave in Russia; an American Tells His Story. N.Y., The Devin-Adair Company, 1958. 182 p. $3.75 Biographical account of the hair-raising experiences of a young American in Russia's prisons and in the slave-labor camp Vorkuta above the Arctic Circle. A thought-provoking story which speaks louder and more convincingly about life under police-state power than any traveller's account ever could.

53. Rasooli, Jay M., and Allen, Cady H.
The Life Story of Dr. Sa'eed of Iran; Kurdish Physician to Princes and Peasants, Nobles and Nomads. Grand Rapids, Mich., Grand Rapids International Publications, 1957. 188 p. $2.95 The fascinating biography of one of the best-known Kurdish converts from Islam to Christianity, Dr. Sa'eed, physician and evangelist, a man of superb courage and faith. Written by the hero's nephew together with a former American Presbyterian missionary to Iran, the story is eminently suited for collateral reading in the mission study year on the Near East.

54. Sadeque, Syedah Fatima.
Baybars I of Egypt. Dacca, Pakistan, Geoffrey Cumberledge, Oxford University Press, 1956. 379 p. Historical revaluation of one of the most brilliant medieval figures of the Muslim world, the founder of the Mamluk regime in Egypt. The Arabic text of the thirteenth-century biography of Baybars is reproduced together with its English translation.

See also: 109, 152, 157, 206.

III. THEORY AND PRINCIPLES OF MISSIONS; THEOLOGY OF MISSIONS

55. Jeremias, Joachim.
Jesus' Promise to the Nations. Translated from the German by S. H. Hooke. (Studies in Biblical Theology, no. 24.) Naperville, Ill., Alec R. Allenson, 1958. 84 p. $1.75 The famous Delitzsch Lectures by one of Germany's foremost New Testament scholars on the foundation of missions in the recorded sayings of Jesus, with the conclusion that the mission to the Gentiles is God's own eschatological activity.

56. Loffeld, Edouard.
Le Problème Cardinal de la Missiologie et des Missions Catholiques. (Publications de l'Institut de Missiologie de l'Université de Nimegue.) Rhenen, Hollande, 1956. 415 p. $5.28 The central problem of missions is conceived as lying in the theological meaning of the concept "mission"; the aim of this systematic study is the incorporation of missiology into ecclesiology.

57. Mulert, Hermann.
Konfessionskunde; die Christlichen Kirchen und Sekten Heute. 3. Aufl. (Sammlung Töpelmann; Erste Reihe: Die Theologie im Abriss, Band 5). Berlin, Alfred Töpelmann, 1956. 557 p. DM 28.50 Textbook on the symbolic doctrines, forms, laws, and confessions of Christian churches and sects in all the world.

58. Murphy, Edward L., S.J.
Teach Ye All Nations; the Principles of Catholic Missionary Work. N.Y., Benziger Brothers, 1958. 234 p. $2.75 Story of the "why" and "how" of the operation of the Roman Catholic Church's widespread missionary work by the associate editor of Jesuit Missions.

59. Niles, D. T.
The Preacher's Task and the Stone of Stumbling; the Lyman Beecher Lectures for 1957. N.Y., Harper, 1958. 125 p. $2.00 The central doctrines of the Gospel -- the Incarnation, the Crucifixion, and the Resurrection -- confronted with their non-acceptance in Hindu, Muslim, and Buddhist religious thought.

60. Paton, David M., ed.
Essays in Anglican Self-Criticism. London, SCM Press, 1958. 238 p. 25/- Seventeen controversial and stimulating papers on various problems of Anglican thought and life, including four that deal with the Christian world mission.

See also: 21, 81, 132, 312, 315.

IV. MISSIONARY METHODS

A. EVANGELISM AND CHURCH WORK; COMMUNICATION OF THE GOSPEL

61. East Asia Christian Conference.
The Common Evangelistic Task of the Churches in East Asia. (Papers and Minutes of the East Asia Christian Conference, Prapat, Indonesia, March 17-26, 1957). Prapat, Indonesia, 1957. 167 p. Narrative account of the Prapat Conference and survey of the Christian situation in contemporary Asia.

See also: 73, 81, 113, 122, 203.

B. CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

See also: 73, 113, 225.

C. CHRISTIAN LITERATURE AND LITERACY EDUCATION

62. Gray, William S.

The Teaching of Reading; an International Survey. (UNESCO Monographs on Fundamental Education, v. 10). Chicago, Scott, Foresman and Company, 1956. 281 p. $3.00 A review of prevailing practices in the UNESCO program, an evaluation of the methods employed, and a presentation of the results of research and experience in the field.

63. Pei, Mario.
One Language for the World. N.Y., Devin-Adair Company, 1958. 291 p. $5.00 Describes the present urgent need for a world language, reviews systems proposed in the past, and offers a solution which would achieve a bilingual world in about 30 years.

See also: 108.

D. AUDIO-VISUAL COMMUNICATIONS

See also: 122.

E. MEDICAL MISSIONS

64. Calder, Ritchie.
Ten Steps Forward; World Health 1948-1958. Geneva, Switzerland, WHO's Division of Public Information, 1958. 68 p. $ .50 The story of the growth and achievements of the World Health Organization; very well illustrated.

65. Morgan, Murray.
Doctors to the World. N.Y., Viking, 1958. 271 p. $5.00 The author's report on some WHO projects which he visited and his experiences with people who work in conquering diseases around the world.

See also: 1, 34, 35, 38, 43, 73, 143.

F. RURAL AND AGRICULTURAL MISSIONS

66. Felton, Ralph A.
Church Bells in Many Tongues. Lebanon, Penna., Sowers Printing Company, 1958. 131 p. $1.50 For Sale by Friendship Press, 297 Fourth Ave., New York 10, N.Y. Description of "the work of 35 rural pastors in 19 different countries in order to show the common elements of successful rural church work." Richly illustrated. Paper covers.

67. Ferrer, Cornelio M.
Rural Rehabilitation and Christian Work in the Philippines (Reprint from Golden Jubilee Symposium, Union Theological Seminary of the Philippines). Manila, Philippine Federation of Christian Churches, 1957. 14 p. $ .35 This brief but very valuable pamphlet is one chapter in a forthcoming symposium, "The Evangelical Faith in the Philippines," which is soon to be published. It deals with the philosophy, history, program, and goals of Christian rural work.

See also: 9, 178, 181, 298.

G. GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF MISSIONARY ACTIVITIES

68. Cole, Marley.
Triumphant Kingdom. N.Y., Criterion Books, 1957. 256 p. $3.50 Story of Jehovah's Witnesses at work in 160 countries throughout the world, methods used, beliefs and practices; a favorable report.

69. Melrose, Paul C.
On Being a Missionary. N.Y., Pageant Press, 1957. 73 p. $2.50 Actual experiences of a Presbyterian missionary on Hainan Island for more than thirty years, told with understanding, sympathy, and warmheartedness. Helpful for all missionaries, especially new candidates.

70. Orr, Mary McCombe.
12,000 Miles by Land Rover; from Brazil to Canada. Grand Rapids, Mich., Zondervan, 1957. 192 p. $2.50 The interesting story of a missionary family and its journey by station wagon from South America to Canada, visiting mission stations on the way.

71. Stevens, Dorothy A.
Neighbor Voices of Representative Baptists. Philadelphia, Penna., The Judson Press, 1958. 109 p. $1.25 Report on the enlargement of "the family" of American Baptist Missions, a description of missionary activities by various missionaries on the field in North and Latin America.

72. Williamson, Mabel.
"Have We No Right--" Chicago, Moody Press, 1957. 126 p. $ .35 The sacrificial spirit of the China Inland Mission Overseas Missionary Fellowship at its best: the author, an experienced and devoted worker, answers questions of the new missionary -- particularly the woman missionary -- regarding adjustments to the problems and demands of foreign missionary service. Written in delightful conversational style.

See also: 5, 8, 9, 11, 122, 132, 149, 190, 199.

H. ADMINISTRATION AND PROMOTION OF MISSIONS; TRAINING OF MISSIONARY PERSONNEL

73. Board of Foreign Missions of the United Lutheran Church in America.
Foreign Mission Policy Conference. Thiel College, Greenville, Penna. September 4-8, 1957. N.Y., 1957. 98 p. Conference report, including the various addresses delivered.

74. Service Overseas. London, The Church Information Board, 1957. 42 p. 1/6
"The report of a Joint Committee of Enquiry on the Recruitment and Training of Ordinands and Clergy for Service Overseas set up by the Overseas Council of the Church Assembly and the Central Advisory Council of Training for the Ministry."

75. Walsh, James E., M.M.
Blueprint of Missionary Vocation. (World Horizon Reports, no. 19) Maryknoll, N.Y., Maryknoll Publications, 1957. 134 p. $1.00 "Maryknoll's pioneer Missioner in China studies the missionary vocation in all its facets, including the special qualifications asked of those called to the apostolate in foreign lands."

See also: 69, 113, 190.

I. OTHER METHODS AND PROBLEMS

76. Khalidy, Mustafa and Farrukh, Omar.
Missionaries and Imperialism. (In Arabic) Beirut, Lebanon, 1957. 240 p. $3.75 "Being an account of mission work in the Arab world as a medium of cultural expansion and a preparation for political intervention."

77. Motte, Jean-François, O.F.M. and Dournap, Médard, O.F.M.
Mission Générale, oeuvre d'Eglise. Paris, Editions Fleurus, 1957. 266 p. $2.85 Elaboration of an urban and regional plan of the missionary ministry and the techniques used.

See also: 58, 73, 113, 135.

V. REFERENCE

A. MISSIONS

78. Bingle, E. J., and Grubb, Kenneth, eds.
World Christian Handbook, 1957. London, World Dominion Press, 1957. 312 p. $4.00 This long-expected revision of the most important handbook of essential information and statistics regarding Church and missions brings the previous volumes up to date. Articles dealing with various aspects of the Christian enterprise have been omitted in this edition; a brief introductory essay attempts an interpretation of the statistics which make up the main part of the book.

79. Bouffard, Adrien, Abbé
Perspectives sur le Monde. Quebec, 1957, L'Union Missionaire du Clergé. 168 p. $2.00 An exceedingly valuable volume of essays and interpreted statistics about the Roman Catholic Church and its missionary work in all lands. An English translation will be forthcoming.

80. Fried, J., and Bettray, John.
Österreichische Priester, Brüder und Schwestern in aller Welt. Wien, Zentrale der Päpstlichen Missionswerke Österreichs, 1957. 184 p. DM 4.60 Handbook of the Roman Catholic Missions of Austria.

81. Hermelink, Jan, ed.
Jahrbuch Evangelischer Mission, 1958. Hamburg, Deutschland, Verlag der deutschen evangelischen Missions-Hilfe, 1958. 124 p. DM 2.00 This annual publication of the German Evangelical Mission provides statistical tables, a brief outline report on missionary conferences, and a bibliography on recent books on missions. It contains also essays on acute problems in the field of missions by various experts.

82.
Political Handbook of the World; Parliaments, Parties and Press as of January 1, 1958. Mallory, Walter H., joint ed. N.Y., Harper, 1958. 229 p. $3.95 "Essential political information on every country in the world, the composition of governments, the programs of the political parties and their leaders...as well as the organization, functions and personnel of the U.N. and associated international agencies."

B. YEARBOOKS AND DIRECTORIES

83. Foy, Felician A., O.F.M., ed.
The 1958 National Catholic Almanac. Fifty-fourth Year. Paterson, N.J., St. Anthony's Guild, 1958. 704 p. $2.50 An up-to-date Catholic reference source with a brief section on home and foreign missions, including statistical tables.

84. Ghana Year Book. Accra, Ghana, Daily Graphic Publication, 1958. 237 p. 2/- This edition, the largest volume published to date, gives a wealth of information about Ghana including a "Who's Who" of leading personalities, a list of educational institutions and political and other organizations of this young African nation.

85. India, Government, Ministry of Information and Broadcasting.
India; a Reference Annual, 1957. Delhi, India, The Publications Division, Old Secretariat, 1957. 664 p. Rs. 5.50 This fifth issue of the reference annual on India includes new sections on "Union Government and Administration" as well as "State Government" and "Local Self-Government," and data on India's relation to international organizations.

86. Israel Government Year-Book, 5718 (1957). Jerusalem, The Government Printer, 1957. 568 p. $2.00 Excellent information on the Israel Government, its officers and plans, including an article by David Ben-Gurion, "Israel and the Diaspora."

87. The South American Handbook, 1957-1958. Edited by Howell Davies. London, Trade and Travel Publications (N.Y., The H. W. Wilson Company), 1957. 882 p. $3.00 The thirty-fourth edition of this familiar "year book and guide to the countries and resources of South and Central America, Mexico and Cuba."

88. State of the Union; Economic, Financial and Statistical Yearbook for the Union of South Africa, 1957. Cape Town, Culemborg Publishers, 1957. 404 p. Handy source of reference and up-to-date account of South Africa at work; includes information on all vital facts and general subjects, such as education, co-existence of black and white, commerce and industry, etc.

89. United Nations.
Statistical Yearbook, 1957. N.Y., Statistical Office of the United Nations, 1957. 674 p. $8.00

90. Who's Who in Egypt and the Near East, 1957-58. J.E. Blattner, ed. Cairo, 1958. 680 p. $16.00 Familiar biographical reference work on the Middle East and Southern Asia, in its twenty-third edition.

See also: 81, 220.

C. BIBLIOGRAPHIES AND GENERAL

91. Africa South of the Sahara; a Selected, Annotated List of Writings, 1951-1956. Washington, D.C., Library of Congress, 1957. 269 p. $2.50 Over 600 new writings are rather fully described, and, in addition, numerous others of a more tecnical nature are briefly annotated as supplementary information for certain areas or fields of interest.

92. Diehl, Katherine Smith.
Religions, Mythologies, Folklores: An Annotated Bibliography. N.Y., The Scarecrow Press, 1956. 315 p. $6.50 "An introduction to the literature of faith and practice of all cultures."

93. Handbook on People's China. Peking, Foreign Languages Press, 1957. 236 p. 6/- Handbook on Chinese history, geography, population; information on the People's Government and organizations in Communist China; an official publication issued in Peking.

94. Harper, Howard V.
Days and Customs of All Faiths. N.Y., Fleet Publishing Corporation, 1957. 399 p. $4.95 A fine, well-written reference source on religious traditions, holy days, and holidays as they have come down to us today.

95. Mihalic, Francis, S.V.D.
Grammar and Dictionary of Neo-Melanesian. Techny, Ill., The Mission Press, S.V.D., 1957. 318 p. $5.00 A practical guide to and help in use of "Pidgin English," with the secondary aim of standardizing written Neo-Melanesian.

96. Orbis; the Encyclopedia of Extra-European Countries. London, Europe Publications, current. "A survey and directory of political, industrial, financial, cultural, and scientific organizations, in the continents of Africa, America, Asia, and Australasia, arranged alphabetically under countries."

97. O'Reilly, Patrick.
Hébridais. Répertoire bio-bibliographique des Nouvelles-Hébrides. (Publication de la Société des Oceanistes, No. 6) Paris, Musée de l'Homme, 1957. 290 p. $13.00 This bio-bibliography, with portrait drawings and text illustrations, constitutes a major contribution to the understanding of the New Hebrides, their inhabitants, the people who worked there as missionaries, and various officials.

98. Die Religion in Geschichte und Gegenwart; Handwörterbuch für Theologie und Religionswissenschaft. 3. Aufl. 1. Band, A-C. Tübingen, Deutschland, Mohr, 1957. 1898 p. DM 104.00 The first volume of this undoubtedly most important and authoritative encyclopedia and handbook of religion; an excellent supplement to previous editions as well as an indispensable source for new subjects, e.g. Egyptology, Assyriology, Americanism, etc.

99. UNESCO.
Study Abroad. International Handbook. Fellowships, Scholarships, Educational Exchange. v. 9, 1957-1958. Paris, 1957. 836 p. $2.50 Information concerning 75,000 opportunities for obtaining financial assistance for international educational travel.

100. United Nations, Department of Economic and Social Affairs.
Economic Survey of Latin America, 1956. N.Y., 1957. 183 p. $2.50 Familiar reference work and statistics on economic trends in Latin America.

101. United Nations. Economic Commission for Asia and the Far East.
Economic Survey of Asia and the Far East, 1957. Bangkok, 1958. 261 p. $2.50 Eleventh in the series of reports prepared each year by the secretariat as an analysis of recent economic developments.

102. United Nations. Food and Agriculture Organization.
Millions Still Go Hungry. Rome, 1957. 102 p. $1.00 A convincing account for the great need of help for the poor of underdeveloped countries of the world.

See Also: 228, 258.

VI. AREAS AND COUNTRIES: (1) GENERAL; (2) MISSIONS, CHURCHES

A. NORTH AMERICA

103. Barnett, H. G.
Indian Shakers; Messianic Cult of the Pacific North West. Carbondale, Ill., Southern Illinois University Press, 1957. 378 p. $5.75 Account of a native messianic cult and the cultural changes brought about by it; the interaction between Indian and white man in the recent history of the Pacific Northwest.

104. Bundy, Edgar C.
Collectivism in the Churches. A Documented Account of the Political Activities of the Federal, National, and World Council of Churches. Wheaton, Ill., The Church League of America, 1958. 354 p. $5.90 A fanatical attack, full of mispresentations, designed to show that the policies and methods of the Councils have been "shaped by Socialists and pro-Communists." It will not convince intelligent and fair-minded readers.

105. Butler, Evelyn I. and Dale, George A.
Alaska: The Land and the People. N.Y., Viking Press, 1957. 159 p. $3.50 The authors, for fifteen years supervisors of education for the U.S. Bureau of Indian Affairs, present a lively report on Alaskan life with excellent photographs.

106. Hoffman, James W., ed.
Concerns of a Continent. N.Y., Friendship Press, 1958. 166 p. $2.95 Chapters on Alaska, Canada, the U.S., Mexico, Hawaii, and the Caribbean islands by specialists make for an illuminating little book regarding the concerns, progress, and life of our "neighbor nations."

107. Hoover, J. Edgar.
Masters of Deceit; the Story of Communism in America and How to Fight It. N.Y., Henry Holt, 1958. 374 p. $5.00 Documented exposé of Communist organization and underground tactics in the United States since 1919 by the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, with comments on Communism in general and how to meet it.

108. Marckwardt, Albert H.
American English. N.Y., Oxford University Press, 1958. 194 p. $4.50 Story of the American-English language from colonial times until today, stressing the unity with British-English, and pointing out the chief difference in vocabulary only.

109. Schnell, W. J.
Thirty Years a Watch Tower Slave; The Confessions of a Converted Jehovah's Witness. Grand Rapids, Mich., Baker Book House, 1957. 207 p. $2.95 A dedicated worker for Jehovah's Witnesses since 1917, the author tells of his growing disillusionment and final break with the organization in 1954; an exposure from inside of what is called an "unbiblical and totalitarian system."

110. U.S. Government Department of the Interior.
Mid-Century Alaska. Washington, D.C., Government Printing Office, 1957. 170 p. $1.00 Information on Alaska and its true potentials in word, pictures, and statistics; good background material and an excellent reference aid.

111. The United States in World Affairs, 1957. N.Y., Harper, 1958. 411 p. $5.50 Record of U.S. participation in international affairs during 1957.

See also: 2, 13, 26, 70, 71, 79, 96, 120, 136, 223, 229, 231, 246, 288, 291, 294, 304, 309.

B. THE CARIBBEAN ISLANDS AND THE GUIANAS

112. Abrahams, Peter.
Jamaica; an Island Mosaic. (The Corona Library, no. 5) London, Her Majesty's Stationery Office, 1957. 284 p. 25/- Vivid picture of the island's colorful history; attractively illustrated.

113. International Missionary Council.
The Listening Isles. Records of the Caribbean Consultation, Inter-American University San German, Puerto Rico, May 17-24, 1957. N.Y., London, International Missionary Council, 1957. 92 p. A complete report of this significant eight-day Christian conference representing churches in the Caribbean area, and discussing vital questions of evangelism, education, leadership training, Christian home and family life, together with regional cooperation.

114. Wilgus, A. Curtis.
The Caribbean: Contemporary International Relations. (Series 1, v. 7) Gainsville, University of Florida Press, 1957. 330 p. $5.00 Various papers on diplomatic relations, confederation movements, trade and business, travel and migration, cultural cooperation, and a bibliography on contemporary Caribbean international problems.

See also: 2, 3, 71, 87, 99, 100, 106, 299.

C. LATIN AMERICA

115. Alexander, Robert J.
Communism in Latin America. New Brunswick, N.J., Rutgers University Press, 1957. 449 p. $9.00 A complete survey of Communist activities and influence in Latin America, country by country; based upon careful study and observation; well-documented. This valuable study analyzes conditions favoring the rise of Communism and considers the right and the wrong way to fight Communism. Little is said about the place of Christianity in the struggle.

116. Bon, A. and others.
Brazil in Pictures. rev. ed. Translated by Laetitia Gifford. N.Y., Studio Publications; (London, Gerald Duckworth), 1958. xv p, 214 photographs. Collection of photographs shows modern Brazil as a country of the future.

117. Bowers, Claude G.
Chile Through Embassy Windows: 1939-1953. N.Y., Simon and Schuster, 1958. 375 p. $5.00 The former ambassador to Chile gives his "impression of the Chilean people, their institutions, their literature and culture, their free press," etc. A very personal and readable book on the South American democracy.

118. Davis, Harold Eugene, ed.
Government and Politics in Latin America. N.Y., The Ronald Press, 1958. 539 p. $6.50 Excellent textbook on Latin American government and politics. Articles are compiled by various experts which "point out the common characteristics of political processes and institutions, common problems, and common trends in political life."

119. Haglund, David J.
Unter Indianern und Räubern; aus bewegten Tagen der Nikaragua-Mission. Übersetzt aus dem Schwedischen von Heinz Motel. Hamburg, Agentur des Rauhen Hauses, 1956. 143 p. A free translation, with additional sections, of the late missionary bishop Guido Grossmann's Nikaragua, Land und Leute; it vividly reports mission work among the Indians in Nicaragua.

120. MacGann, Thomas F.
Argentina, the United States, and the Inter-American System, 1880-1914. Cambridge, Mass., Harvard University Press, 1957. 332 p. $6.50 History of a proud Latin American nation and the great influence the United States had, economically and politically, in helping to shape its destiny.

121. Rycroft, W. Stanley.
Religion and Faith in Latin America. Philadelphia, Penna., Westminster Press, 1958. 208 p. $3.75 A perceptive study of Latin American culture and the role Protestantism has played in competition with various other ideological and religious forces; notable writing by a distinguished missionary leader.

122. Savage, Robert.
At Your Orders, Lord! Grand Rapids, Mich., Zondervan, 1957. 64 p. $1.00 A sequel to Lord, Send Me! , this is a report on rich missionary experience and work during the last fifteen years in South America under the Evangelical Alliance Mission in Colombia and the World Missionary Fellowship at Quito, Ecuador, by the co-vice president for South America of Youth for Christ, International.

123. Tidings out of Brazil. Translated from the German by Mark Graubard, with a commentary and notes by John Parker. Minneapolis, The University of Minnesota Press, 1957. 48 p. $5.00 Translation of an anonymous letter of the early 16th century and the facsimile reproduction of the original in the James Ford Bell Collection.

124. Vageler, Paul, und Renz, Kurt.
Brasilien Gigant der Zukunft; Streiflichter und Eindrücke aus Vergangenheit und Gegenwart. Gotha, Deutschland, VEB Hermann Haack, 1957. 314 p. $2.64 Describes the great economic and industrial potential in one of the largest countries of the world, the people and their way of life in the modern cities, and also in the pioneer districts.

125. Williams, Henry Lionel.
Fantastic South America; Continent of the Future. N.Y., Horizon Press, 1958. 350 p. $6.00 Description of the history, culture, people, and ways of life of Latin American countries in a lively style, with many illustrations. Index and short bibliography.

See also: 2, 3, 26, 70, 71, 87, 100, 291, 300, 307.

D. EUROPE

126. Barnett, Clifford R. and others.
Poland; Its People, Its Society, Its Culture. (Survey of World Cultures.) New Haven, Conn., Human Relations Area Files, 1958. 471 p. $7.50 An analysis of the function and interrelationships of Polish society in its parts and as a whole; changing sociological, economic, and cultural aspects, and Poland's development as a Soviet satellite.

127. Durell, Lawrence.
Bitter Lemons. N.Y., E. P. Dutton, 1957. 256 p. $3.50 "Study of the moods and atmosphere of Cyprus during the troubled years, 1953-56;" gives a sensitive portrayal of the life and people of the island.

128. Gunther, John.
Inside Russia Today. N.Y., Harper, 1958. 550 p. $5.95 A brilliantly written newsletter and "editorial" on almost any question which Westerners might ask about the U.S.S.R.

129. Kennan, George F.
Russia, the Atom and the West. N.Y., Harper, 1958. 116 p. $2.50 Provocative lectures on the critical problems posed by the atomic race and the "Cold War," with bold proposals for a fresh, creative approach in international relations and especially Anglo-American relations.

130. Madariaga, Salvador de.
Spain; a Modern History. N.Y., Praeger, 1958. 736 p. $7.50 Political, economic, and social history by one of the leaders of Spanish liberal thinking in exile, based on an earlier English edition, the revision and four new chapters bringing this study up to date.

131. Pattee, Richard.
Portugal and the Portuguese World. Milwaukee, Wis., Bruce Publishing Company, 1957. 350 p. $7.50 A portrait of historic and contemporary Portugal, and of the Portuguese people and their world at home and beyond the European frontiers.

132. Die Schweizerischen Landeskirchen und die äussere Mission. (Die Sammlung der Gemeinde, Heft 11) Basel, Schweiz, Basler Missionsbuchhandlung, 1957. 32 p. Sw. Fr. 1.50 Under the general theme of "Church and Missions," two Swiss theologians present their views on practical aspects of the relation of the regional churches of Switzerland and their congregations to missions.

133. United Nations.
Report of the Special Committee on the Problem of Hungary. (General Assembly Official Records: Eleventh Session, Supplement no. 18 A/3592) N.Y., 1957. 148 p. $2.00 Excellent collection of data and documents and "complete official text with maps presented to the U.N. General Assembly."

See also: 2, 26, 27, 45, 52, 156, 274, 291.

E. AFRICA (SOUTH OF THE SAHARA)

134. Angerhausen, Julius.
Brückenschlag nach Africa; die Reise des Bishofs von Münster, Dr. Michael Keller, in die ost- und südafrikanischen Missionen. Düsseldorf, Deutschland, Verlag Haus Altenberg, 1957. 166 p. DM 6.90 Illustrated diary of the visit of the Bishop of Münster to African mission fields, with his impressions of the economic, cultural and religious development of the continent and a call for Christian cooperation in Africa's struggle to overcome her most urgent problems.

135. Bernander, Gustaf.
The Rising Tide; Christianity Challenged in East Africa. Translated from the Swedish by H. Daniel Friberg. Rock Island, Ill., Augustana Press, 1957. 70 p. $1.00 The author, a member of the Church of Sweden Mission, analyzes the rapid growth of Islam, its effect on the Bantu African, and its challenge to Christian missions.

136. Bixler, Raymond W.
The Foreign Policy of the United States in Liberia. N.Y., Pageant Press, 1957. 143 p. $3.00 A brief, factual review of political and financial relations between the two countries from the time of the founding of Liberia to the end of World War II.

137. Bovill, E. W.
The Golden Trade of the Moors. London, Oxford University Press, 1958. 281 p. $7.00 Supplements and retells in slightly different form the author's earlier book, The Caravans of the Old Sahara, showing how "Berbers and Arabs, Jews and Christians, never ceased to draw on the wealth and industry of the Sudanese."

138. Egerton, F. Clement C.
Angola in Perspective; Endeavor and Achievement in Portuguese West Africa. London, Routledge & Kegan Paul, 1957. 272 p. $7.50 Comprehensive account of this Portuguese province of great strategic and economic importance. Starting with its discovery in 1482, the author traces the country's history and economic development to the present day.

139. Hance, William A.
African Economic Development. N.Y., Harper (London, Oxford University Press), 1958. 307 p. $4.95 A noted group of authorities, meeting in the Council on Foreign Relation's Discussion Group on Economic Development in Africa, aided in this study of agricultural and industrial development, transportation, and capital investment. Concrete schemes of recent origin are presented as the core of the study.

140. Ingham, Kenneth.
The Making of Modern Uganda. London, George Allen & Unwin, 1958. 303 p. 25/- The history of Uganda since the 1890's, after the foundations of British administration were laid and the emergence of a territory in which material prosperity is founded on agriculture supervised by British agricultural officers.

141. Joy, Charles R.
Africa; a Handbook for Travelers. N.Y., Duell, Sloan and Pearce, 1958. 171 p. $3.50 A compact book which considers every country and off-shore island of Africa, travel routes to each one, and hotels in every center of importance, but omits detailed descriptions of points of interest.

142. Oliver, Roland A.
Sir Harry Johnston and the Scramble for Africa. London, Chatto and Windus (Toronto, Clarke, Irwin), 1957. 368 p. $5.75 An important study of colonialism on the African continent.

143. Pidoux, Edmond.
Afrika; ein Kontinent--zwei Welten. Übersetzt aus dem Französischen bei Winfried Thiemer. Basel, Schweiz, Baseler Missionsbuchhandlung, 1957. 172 p. Sw. Fr. 8.10 "L'Afrique à l'âge ingrat" is the original title of this interesting and sensitive account by a young Swiss who travelled extensively in Africa south of the Sahara and presents the reader with the impressions he received of the present-day struggle of the two worlds on this continent, including a visit with Dr. Schweitzer in Lambaréné.

144. Royal Institute of International Affairs. Information Department.
Ghana; a Brief Political and Economic Survey. London, Oxford University Press, 1957. 62 p. 5/- A brief, authoritative study of Ghana's political and constitutional development and civil service, with a survey of social and economic conditions and plans for development.

145. Schiffers, Heinrich. The Quest for Africa; Two Thousand Years of Exploration. Translated from the German by Diana Pyke. N.Y., G.P. Putnam's Sons, 1957. 352 p. $5.00 A comprehensive description of every significant adventurer to discover Africa, providing historical and geographical backgrounds to the general study of the Continent.

146. Seymour, John.
One Man's Africa. N.Y., John Day, 1956. 255 p. $4.00 Through an acute and sensitive account of the author's personal experiences during a twelve-year period in Africa with both European and African people, the problems and consequences of their relationships are perceptively portrayed.

147. South Africa. Commission for the Socio-Economic Development of the Bantu Areas.
Summary of the Report. Pretoria, Government Printer, 1955. 213 p. 12/6 Detailed summary of an exhaustive survey which calls for complete separation of Bantu and European areas in a ten-year program of agricultural and industrial development. Frequently known as the "Tomlinson Report."

148. Taylor, J.V.
Christianity and Politics in Africa. (Penguin African Series, v. 9) London, Penguin Books, 1957. 127 p. 2/- A former Anglican missionary to Uganda writes perceptively on the need for Christian social and political action by laymen in Africa, giving both general and specific background material for guidance.

149. Taylor, John V.
Processes of Growth in an African Church. (I.M.C. Research Pamphlets no. 6) London, SCM Press, 1958. 30 p. 3/- A penetrating study of the Anglican Church in country parishes of the Buganda kingdom of Uganda, considering both its internal condition and the problems involved in its contact with present-day environment.

150. Tucker, A. N., and Bryan, M. A.
Linguistic Survey of the Northern Bantu Borderland. v. 4: Languages of the Eastern Section Great Lakes to Indian Ocean. London; N.Y.; Toronto, Oxford University Press, 1957. 89 p. 25/-

151. Turner, V. W.
Schism and Continuity in an African Society; A Study of Ndembu Village Life. Manchester, England, Manchester University Press, 1957. 348 p. 35/- A study in social anthropology of a single village in Northern Rhodesia, using the technique of the "social drama" -- a series of crises which threaten the unity of the village.

152. Wisenan, E. M.
Kikuyu Martyrs. London, Highway Press, 1958. 47 p. 3/6 Collection of stories about some of the martyr-heroes during the period of the Mau-Mau revolt, 1952-54.

153. Wolfson, Freda.
Pageant of Ghana. (West African History Series) London, Oxford University Press, 1958. 266 p. 1/10/- An anthology of writings by persons who have known the Gold Coast from the time of its discovery in 1471 to the attainment of Ghana's independence in 1957, giving a picture of the people, the country, and the history, institutions, and beliefs as they appeared to observers both African and European.

See also: 2, 3, 4, 5, 8, 22, 24, 29, 32, 33, 36, 37, 43, 46, 50, 51, 81, 84, 88, 91, 96, 103, 115, 131, 249, 286, 297, 301, 305.

F. NEAR EAST, MIDDLE EAST AND NORTH AFRICA

154. Asia Minor. Translated from the German by Norma Deane. N.Y., William Morrow and Company, 1957. 32 p. and 160 plates. $10.00 Beautiful volume with 160 pictures in photogravure, eight colour plates, and an introduction by Maxim Osward.

155. Badeau, John S.
The Lands Between. N.Y., Friendship Press, 1958. 138 p. $2.95 Geographical, historical, social, and political portrayal of the Middle East, and an examination of the existing tension between western technology and the teachings of Islam.

156. Barn, Peter.
Early Sites of Christianity. Translated from the German by Stanley Godman. N.Y., Pantheon Books, 1957. 256 p. Travelogue of a German physician and writer who describes with great charm the contemporary scene of the countries of the Old and the New Testaments, and relates them vividly to the history of early Christianity.

157. Benoist-Mechin, Jacques.
Arabian Destiny. Translated from the French by Denis Weaver. Fair Lawn, N.J., Essential Books, 1958. 298 p. $7.50 History of desert life from its earliest beginnings until today, with special emphasis on the life and achievements of Ibn Saud.

158. Ben-Zvi, Itzhak.
The Exiled and the Redeemed. Translated from the Hebrew by Isaac A. Abbady. Philadelphia, The Jewish Publication Society of America, 1957. 334 p. $4.00 The President of Israel gives a report of "the ingathering of the exiles" into the State. The book is also a history of the various and scattered groups and "lost tribes" of the ancient Jewish people.

159. Bernstein, Marver H.
The Politics of Israel; the First Decade of Statehood. Princeton, N. J., Princeton University Press, 1957. 360 p. $6.00 Analysis of Israel's political institutions, the role of political parties, the cabinet, the legislative and judicial bodies of the central government, etc.

160. Blumberg, John.
This is the Middle East. N.Y., Friendship Press, 1958. 24 p. $ .60 Attractive pamphlet which tries to show in an engaging manner, through text and pictures, "the changing, the vitally alive Middle East that is little known in North America."

161. Caldwell, John C.
Let's Visit the Middle East; Egypt to Iran. N.Y., John Day, 1958. 96 p. $2.95 The Middle East -- its countries and people being skillfully portrayed in this attractive little book for young people.

162. Callard, Keith.
Pakistan, a Political Study. London, George Allen & Unwin, 1957. 355 p. 30/- History of the political events of the "Islamic Republic" since 1947.

163. Costa, A.
Persia; 105 Pictures in Photogravure and 5 Color Plates. Introductory Essay and Notes by L. Lockhart. N.Y., Praeger, 1958. 45 p. and 105 plates. $10.00 Against the background of a six-thousand-year-old history and culture, the present-day life of the people and their humble trades come magnificently alive in this beautiful book.

164. Eyton, Walter.
The First Ten Years; a Diplomatic History of Israel. N.Y., Simon and Schuster, 1958. 239 p. $4.00 The Director General of the Foreign Ministry reviews Israel's foreign affairs during the first ten years of her independent existence.

165. Gruber, Ruth.
Israel Today; Land of Many Nations. N.Y., Hill and Wang, 1958. 242 p. $3.95 The special correspondent of the New York Herald Tribune gives a vivid portrait of Israel today, with chapters on the Jews at Djerbe, the Sinai campaign, customs, art, music, etc., and includes latest travel information.

166. Johnson, R. Park.
Middle East Pilgrimage. N.Y., Friendship Press, 1958. 164 p. $2.95 A "journey" through the changing Middle East, the influence the West had and still holds on this turbulent part of the world, and the power of Islan which is the formative force in the lives of the vast majority of its people.

167. Landau, Ron.
Arab Contribution to Civilization. San Francisco, Calif., American Academy of Asian Studies, 1958. 80 p. A brief survey-type evaluation of Arab culture and civilization covering all the familiar fields of learning, with a concluding chapter on the "Arab World Today."

168. - - - - - - Moroccan Drama, 1900-1955. London, Robert Hale, 1956. 430 p. 25/- Most recent phase of Moroccan history, the years of the French Protectorate, and the newly achieved independence -- an objective account of events in the present century.

169. Maxwell, Gavin.
People of the Reeds. N.Y., Harper, 1957. 227 p. $4.50 Narrative of a journey through the lower regions of the Tigris in southern Iraq, telling of the life and customs of a virtually unknown people in a very personal and interesting way.

170. The Middle East Institute.
Transcript of a Working Conference on Middle East Development Goals, Plans, and Prospects. Washington, D. C., 1958. 95 p. $1.25 Addresses and Round Table Chairmen's reports made before the Middle East Institute's 12th Annual Conference on Middle Eastern Affairs, Jan. 1958.

171. Peretz, Don.
Israel and the Arabs. Washington, D. C., The Middle East Institute, 1958. 264 p. $5.00 The long tragic record of proposals and counterproposals and their defeat in the struggle for a settlement of the Israel-Arab question is set forth in detail and with great care.

172. Sands, William, ed.
New Look at the Middle East. Washington, D. C., Middle East Institute, 1957. 84 p. $1.75 "A series of addresses presented at the Eleventh Annual Conference on Middle Eastern Affairs, sponsored by the Middle East Institute, April 11-13, 1957."

173. U. S. Department of State.
Background: Three New African Nations, Morocco, Tunisia, Libya. (Near and Middle Eastern Series, 27) Washington, D. C., Government Printing Office, 1957. 32 p. $ .25 Background studies for quick information, with informative maps and handsome photographs.

174. Wysner, Glora M.
Caught in the Middle. N.Y., Friendship Press, 1958. 116 p. $2.95 A book for youth and equally interesting for adults, stressing tensions in the Middle East and showing the need for Christian faith and action, by an authority on this part of the world, now serving as a secretary of the International Missionary Council.

See also: 2, 3, 34, 53, 54, 76, 86, 90, 137, 248, 284, 292.

G. CENTRAL ASIA

175. Juvaini, 'Ala-ad-Din' 'Ata-Malik.
The History of the World-Conqueror. 2 vols. Translated from the Text of Mirza Muhammad Qazvini by John Andrew Boyle. Manchester, England, University of Manchester Press, 1958. 763 p. 63/- Ta'rikh-i-Jahan-Gusha or History of the World-Conqueror is the story of the sudden rise and expansion of the Mongol power in the thirteenth century.

176. Thiel, Erich.
Die Mongolei. (Veröffentlichungen des Osteuropa-Institutes München, Band 13) München, Deutschland, Isar Verlag, 1958. 495 p. $11.70 Survey of the land, people, and economic system of the Peoples' Republic of Mongolia.

See also: 23, 96, 248, 261, 263, 267, 284, 306.

H. SOUTHERN ASIA

177. Anstey, Ruth.
The Sun Casts a Shadow. London, Cargate Press, 1957. 134 p. 6/- The Christian's life in India today, based on the experiences of an educational missionary and as seen by her under two aspects, India without Christ, and Christ in India.

178. Bailey, F. G.
Caste and the Economic Frontier; a Village in Highland Orissa. Manchester, England, Manchester University Press, 1957. 292 p. 35/- Study of the economic and political structure of a Hindu village in the backwoods of the Orissa hills in India.

179. Campbell, Alexander.
The Heart of India. N.Y., Alfred A. Knopf, 1958. 333 p. $5.00 A second "Mother India" in its devastating exposure of the darker side of Indian society, with little sense of proportion and meager sympathy for the nation.

180. Chronology of Pakistan, 1947-1957. Karachi, Kamel Publications, 1957. 194 p. Important dates in the last ten years of Pakistan's history.

181. Ecumenical Christian Conference, Bombay, January 1956.
A Socialistic Pattern of Society. Bombay, The National Christian Council of India, 1956. 79 p. Conference report on the contributions of various experts, including speeches such as "The Political Life of India"; "The Economic Development of India"; "A Socialistic Pattern of Society"; etc.

182. Edwards, Michael.
South Asia. N.Y., Praeger, 1958. 156 plates. $8.50 128 beautiful pictures in photogravure and 28 in color by Hans Keusen, with an essay and notes by the author.

183. Griffiths, Sir Percival.
Modern India. London, Ernest Benn, 1957. 255 p. 27/- Political and economic events in the recent history of India, the development of India's foreign policy, and her important role as a mediator in the world today.

184. India. Government, Planning Commission.
The New India; Progress Through Democracy. N.Y., London, Toronto, Manila, Macmillan, 1958. 412 p. $5.00 Traces the government's second five-year plan, "its grand strategy in the war against poverty," and the development of agriculture, industry and social science.

185. Indian Communist Party Documents 1930-1956. Bombay, India, The Democratic Research Service; N.Y., The Institute of Pacific Relations, 1957. 345 p. Rs. 10/- Compilation of documents which depict the program of the Communist Party of India, as well as its rules and regulations, and a secret circular outlining the course of action in relation to the Congress Socialist Party, with an excellent analytical introduction by V. B. Karnik.

186. Lloyd, J. Meirion.
On Every High Hill. Liverpool, Foreign Mission Office, 1957. 84 p. 3/- Tracing of the beginnings and growth of the church in Lushai, India.

187. Menon, V. P.
The Story of the Integration of the Indian States. N.Y., Macmillan, 1956. 511 p. $7.00 History of the immediate post-independence period, 1947-51, the integration of 554 States, and the development of one central government, with political and administrative consolidation of the new Indian nation.

188. Pandit, Vijaya Lakshmi.
The Evolution of India. London, Oxford University Press, 1958. 46 p. 6/- Three lectures by India's High Commissioner in the United Kingdom, delivered at McMaster University, Hamilton, Ontario in 1957, review the historical process which moulded Indian civilization and culture.

189. Pothacamury, Thomas.
The Church in Independent India. (World Horizon Reports, no. 22) Maryknoll, N.Y., Maryknoll Publications, 1957. 90 p. $ .75 "The Archbishop of Bangalore reviews the position of the Church in his native land against the background of India's status as a free nation."

190. Scopes, Wilfred.
A Handbook on Training Christian Laymen in the Voluntary Service of the Church. Lucknow, India, The Lucknow Publishing House, 1956. 144 p. Rs. 2/4/- Suggestions, methods, and outlines for training and using laymen in practical ways in the service of the Church.

191.
Ten Years of Pakistan, 1947-1957. Karachi, Pakistan Publications, 1957. 360 p. Rs. 2/8 A review of ten years of independence and government administration, including economic survey, public services, defence, welfare, and a chapter on Pakistan and the world.

192. Woytinsky, W. S.
India; the Awakening Giant. N.Y., Harper, 1957. 207 p. $3.75 India's plan of industrialization, on the one hand, and her revival of her villages, on the other hand, are discussed; also educational and welfare needs in relation to her culture and the problem of "neutralism" on the political scene.

193. Zinkin, Taya.
India Changes. N.Y., Oxford University Press, 1958. 233 p. $5.00 Personal, social, and political changes are described as the result of westernization in India today.

See also: 2, 3, 73, 81, 85, 90, 96, 131, 247, 248, 255, 275, 284, 290, 291, 304.

I. SOUTH EAST ASIA

194. Blanchard, Wendell, and others.
Thailand, its People, its Society, its Culture. (Country Survey Series) New Haven, Conn., Human Relation Area Files, 1957. 528 p. $6.50 Detailed study with plates, maps, and statistics, covering virtually all important subjects such as sociology, culture, religion, politics, etc., of this important South East Asian nation.

195. Buttinger, Joseph.
The Smaller Dragon; a Political History of Vietnam. N.Y., Praeger, 1958. 535 p. $6.00 History of Vietnam's struggle for ethnic and national survival; a lively portrayal of one of the major battlefields in the conflict between East and West, which produced two rival political powers in a divided country.

196. Caldwell, John C.
Let's Visit Southeast Asia; Hong Kong to Malaya. N.Y., John Day, 1957. 95 p. $2.95 An attractive little book for young people containing selected information on Southeast Asian countries with the omission of the Republic of Indonesia.

197. Freedman, Maurice.
Chinese Family and Marriage in Singapore. (Colonial Research Studies, no. 20) London, Her Majesty's Stationery Office, 1957. 249 p. 1/10/- Study of changing family life and systems in an important offshoot of the society of China, by a scholar in anthropology; interesting and valuable data.

198. King, Frank H. H.
The New Malayan Nation; a Study of Communalism and Nationalism. N.Y., Institute of Pacific Relations, 1957. 89 p. $2.00 The power struggle between Malays, Indians, and Chinese is seen as the core of the problem which may spell either democratic freedom or disaster.

199. Kuhn, Isobel.
Ascent to the Tribes; Pioneering in North Thailand. Chicago, Moody Press, 1956. 315 p. $4.00 A well-written narrative of the new adventure of the China Inland Mission Overseas Missionary Fellowship among the Lisu tribespeople on the China-Thailand border; interesting and inspiring.

200. Mills, Lennox A.
Malaya: A Political and Economic Appraisal. Minneapolis, Minn., University of Minnesota Press, 1958. 234 p. $4.75 The political and economic development of Malaya during the last decade, the antagonism between Malayans, Chinese, and Indians, and an outlook on the serious problems facing Malaya today.

201. Moorhead, F. J.
A History of Malaya and Her Neighbours. V. 1. London, N.Y., Toronto, Longmans, Green, 1957. 245 p. 12/6 Introduction to the history of Malaya and the influence of her neighbours on her development.

202. Nicholson, Harold.
Journey to Java. Garden City, N.Y., Doubleday, 1958. 335 p. $5.00 Delightful travel book by a distinguished literary critic who went on a two months' cruise from London to Java in the company of his wife. Describes their experiences in the ports of call, and their reflections on the world past and present during pleasant shipboard hours.

203. Perkins, Harvey L., and Thomas, Winburn T.
A Report of the Prapat Conference. Sydney, Australia, Australian Council for the World Council of Churches, 1957. 22 p. The English edition of the Indonesian booklet, Geredja[2] Asia Timur Bertemu di Prapat, the conference report of the Christian Council of East Asia on the common Evangelistic concern.

204. Skinner, G. William.
Leadership and Power in the Chinese Community of Thailand. Ithaca, N.Y., Cornell University Press, 1958. 363 p. $6.50 Very detailed analysis of cross-ethnic integrative forces at work on the elite level of one national society, a study which is relevant also to other countries.

205. Smith, Robert Aura.
Philippine Freedom 1946-1958. N.Y., Columbia University Press, 1958. 375 p. $5.00 Evaluation of the experience of democracy and freedom in the first of the "colonial" states of Asia which gained independence, by a member of the Editorial Council of The New York Times who spent seven years as a staff correspondent in the Philippines.

206. Sparrow, Gerald.
Opium Venture. London, Robert Hale, 1957. 202 p. 16/- Autobiographical account of the author's adventuresome experiences with the opium trade in Northern Burma, Siam, and Laos, and the Salem Princess who ruled the opium dealers and growers.

See also: 2, 3, 30, 41, 61, 67, 96, 131, 218, 248, 270, 291, 308.

J. EAST ASIA

207. Aagaard, Johannes.
Japanske Perspektiver; Religion og Politik i Japan. Skjern, Danske Missionsselskab, 1957. 229 p. History of the religious and political development of Japan with special reference to the influence of Christian Missions.

208. Allen, G. C.
Japan's Economic Recovery. London, N.Y., Toronto. Oxford University Press, 1958. 215 p. $4.75 A survey of Japan's remarkable post-war resurgence in industry, trade, agriculture and finance.

209. Bodde, Derk.
China's Cultural Tradition. What and Whither? (Source Problems in World Civilization) N.Y., Reinhart & Company, Inc., 1957. 90 p. $1.25
A well-known Sinologist condenses a great deal of material on China's cultural history into a useful booklet for general study and reading. Social and political institutions are given more attention than language, literature and art, and sources are limited largely to American and British scholars.

210. Carlson, Ellsworth C.
The Kaiping Mines. (1877-1912) (Chinese Economic and Political Studies) Cambridge, Mass., Harvard University Press, 1957. 174 p. $3.00 Analytical history of China's first modern coal-mining enterprise, extending to the end of the Manchu Dynasty, and based upon Chinese and western sources.

211. Cressey, Earl Herbert.
Understanding China; a Handbook of Background Information on Changing China. N.Y., Thomas Nelson & Sons, 1957. 278 p. $5.00 A well-known missionary educator and author presents an outline of Chinese history and its long-term trends, along with several chapters of source material on the Communist victory and the present regime. A useful reference book.

212. De Beauvoir, Simone.
The Long March. Translated from the French by Austryn Wainhouse. N.Y., The World Publishing Company, 1958. 513 p. $7.50 A rosy picture of People's China critical only of pre-1949 conditions, with superficial observations but, also, some genuinely fine insights into Chinese life and culture. The author visited China for six weeks in 1955.

213. Dickson, Lillian.
These My People; Serving Christ Among the Mountain People of Formosa. Grand Rapids, Mich., Zondervan, 1958. 121 p. $2.00 A "gallant little missionary" of the Canadian Presbyterian Church describes in colorful style the mountain aborigines of Taiwan and the influence which the Christian Gospel has had upon them.

214. East Asia Regional Studies Program.
Papers on China. v. 11. Cambridge, Mass., Harvard University Center for East Asia Studies, 1957. 191 p. $2.50 These studies of original source materials are privately duplicated and distributed to scholars and libraries. They are prepared by various specialists in the respective fields. This issue includes Paul A. Cohen's article on "Missionary Approaches: Hudson Taylor and Timothy Richard."

215. Franke, Wolfgang.
Das Jahrbundert der chinesischen Revolution, 1851-1949. München, Deutschland, Oldenbourg, 1958. 297 p. $5.93 A review of Chinese revolutionary history leading up to the Communist victory: the Taiping rebellion 1851-1864, the reform movement around 1898, the Boxer uprising, the republican era and downfall of the Kuomintang, and the modern social revolution that opened the way for present changes.

216. Garrott, W. Maxfield.
Japan Advances. Nashville, Tenn., Convention Press, 1956. 165 p. $ .60 A study book on Christianity in Japan written chiefly for Southern Baptists but containing for the most part material of interest and value for all readers. Written in an interesting and impartial manner.

217. Hansen, Kenneth K.
Heroes Behind Barbed Wire. Princeton, N.J.; Toronto, D. Van Nostrand Company, 1957. 345 p. $5.95 The first complete story of the Chinese and North Korean prisoners of war (ninety-five percent) who chose to remain on freedom's side after the Korean armistice, replete with drama and pathos. The author, Colonel Hansen, directed the psychological warfare for the United Nations Command during the conflict.

218. Hinton, Harold C.
China's Relations with Burma and Vietnam; a Brief Survey. N.Y., Institute of Pacific Relations, 1958. 64 p. $1.75 Scholarly historical research which helps the student of world affairs better to understand current developments and trends in Southeast Asia.

219. ------. The Grain Tribute System of China (1845-1911). (Chinese Economic and Political Studies) Cambridge, Mass., Harvard University Press, 1956. 163 p. $3.00 New research into the system by which grain tribute was carried, along the Grand Canal and by sea transport, to the capital at Peking.

220. ------ . and Jansen, Marius B., eds. Major Topics on China and Japan; a Handbook for Teachers. N.Y., Institute of Pacific Relations, 1957. 326 p. $3.50 Invaluable source book for teachers of Far Eastern subjects, covering history, culture, and current events; material taken from seminar discussions; good bibliographies.

221. Ike, Nobutaka.
Japanese Politics; an Introductory Survey. N.Y., Alfred A. Knopf, 1957. 300 p. $5.50 A unique study of the political philosophies, forms, and forces in present-day Japan, and the historical and sociological background out of which these have grown. Excellent use of resource material both western and Japanese, including pertinent charts, maps and tables.

222. Keizo, Shibusawa, comp. and ed.
Japanese Life and Culture in the Meiji Era. Translated from the Japanese by Charles S. Terry. (Centenary Cultural Council Series) Tokyo, Obunsha, 1958. 397 p. ¥ 1,800 History of the material culture as revealed in everyday life during the Meiji period.

223. Kimura, Ki, comp. and ed.
Japanese Literature; Manners and Customs in the Meiji-Taisho Era. Translated and adapted by Philip Yampolsky. (Centenary Cultural Council Series; A History of Japanese-American Cultural Relations 1853-1926) Tokyo, Obunsha, 1957. 277 p. ¥ 1,800 Written in the Oriental style, which values the subjective over the objective, this book contains a wealth of insights into the influence of American literary works on Japan. Only the last twenty pages deal with the Americanization of Japanese customs.

224. Liang, Fang-chung.
The Single-Whip Method of Taxation in China. Translated from the Chinese by Wang Yü-ch'uan. (Chinese Economic and Political Studies) Cambridge, Mass., Harvard University Press, 1956. 71 p. $2.00 Research into the taxation system of the sixteenth century whereby land tax and labor service were combined into one item, the beginning of the modern land tax system.

225. Lloyd, Wesley P.
Student Personnel Services in Japan. Washington, D.C., American Council on Education, 1957. 111 p. Results of a study made by a special committee of the American Council on Education, in cooperation with Japanese educational authorities, dealing with out-of-class services to university students in Japan.

226. Moore, Raymond S.
Michibiki; The Leading of God. Washington, D.C., Review and Herald, 1956. 250 p. $3.75 A well-written collection of dramatic incidents in the lives of present-day Seventh-Day Adventists of Japan, by the President of the Japan Missionary College.

227. Norman, W. H. H.
An Interim Report on Mukyokaishugi Today. Reprinted from the Kwansei Gakuin University Annual Studies, v. 6. Nishinomiya, Kwansei Gakuin University, 1958. 28 p. An authority on the non-Church movement in Japan gives the results of recent surveys of opinion of Japanese church pastors on the subject, as well as his own careful analysis of the movement as it is today.

228. Oh, Chae Kyung.
A Handbook of Korea. N.Y., Pagent Press, 1957. 389 p. $5.00 Review of the history of civilization of Korea as well as of the geography, religion, and culture, giving informative statistics and a complete picture of Korea today, including selected maps and many photographs.

229. Ohara, Keishi., comp. and ed.
Japanese Trade and Industry in the Meiji-Taisho Era. Translated and adapted by Tamotsu Okata. (Centenary Cultural Council Series; A History of Japanese-American Cultural Relations, 1853-1926) Tokyo, Obunsha, 1957. 566 p. ¥ 1,800 A thorough study of the commercial relations between America and Japan and their influence on Japan's economy, illustrated by numerous charts and tables. Covers the period from Japan's opening to the West to the end of the Taisho Era in 1926.

230. Quigley, Harold S., and Turner, John E.
The New Japan; Government and Politics. Minneapolis, Minn., University of Minnesota Press, 1956. 456 p. $5.00 A detailed treatment of every branch of Japan's post-war government and legal structure, including a careful analysis of the problems relating to the drafting of the new constitution. Important materials are contained in the Appendix.

231. Reischauer, Edwin O.
The United States and Japan, rev. ed. Cambridge, Mass., Harvard University Press, 1957. 394 p. $5.50 The 1950 edition is here brought up to date, chiefly by the revision of Part IV, "The Occupation," and the addition of Part V, "The Postwar Japanese," and certain materials in the Appendix.

232. Riencourt, Amaury de.
The Soul of China. N.Y., Coward-McCann, 1958. 298 p. $5.00 The story of China and especially its recent changes in a fresh perspective. A brilliant book by the French-born author of The Coming Caesars.

233. Shigemitsu, Mamoru.
Japan and Her Destiny; My Struggle for Peace. Translated from the Japanese by Oswald White and edited by F.S.G. Piggott. N.Y., E.P. Dutton, 1958. 392 p. $6.50 This book provides a valuable view from the inside of Japan's political scene from the beginning of the Manchurian Incident in 1931 to the end of World War II.

234. Snow, Edgar.
Random Notes on Red China (1936-1945). (Chinese Economic and Political Studies) Cambridge, Mass., Harvard University Press, 1957. 148 p. $3.00 Edgar Snow, famous writer on Russia and the Far East, publishes some interesting "Now-it-can-be-told" material: interviews with Chinese Communist leaders before they seized control of the mainland, biographical notes, etc. New light is thrown on the Sian Incident and other events.

235. Tang, Peter S. H.
Communist China Today. Volume II: Chronological and Documentary Supplement. N.Y., Praeger, 1958. 137 p. $3.75 Chronology of major events in the rise of Chinese Communism, 1918 to 1956, and a Documentary Appendix containing Communist constitutions of 1945, 1954, and 1956.

236. Velen, Elizabeth and Victor, eds.
The New Japan. (The Reference Shelf, vol. 30, no. 2) N.Y., H. W. Wilson, 1958. 203 p. $2.00 A handy reference book made up of numerous articles from periodicals somewhat condensed to contain the essential matter at hand, but none the less readable.

237. White, Theodore H.
The Mountain Road. N.Y., William Sloane Associates, 1958. 347 p. $3.95 A swiftly moving novel about West China in a critical week of 1944, by a well-known reporter who covered this part of the globe during World War II.

238. Wilbur, C. Martin, and How, Julie Lien-ying, eds.
Documents on Communism, Nationalism, and Soviet Advisers in China, 1918-1927. Papers Seized in the 1927 Peking Raid. N.Y., Columbia University Press, 1956. 617 p. $8.75 An important source book for documents relating to Soviet influence upon China before the Revolution of 1927.

239. Willetts, William.
Chinese Art. v. 1-2. Harmondsworth, England, Penguin Books, 1958. 802 p. $1.50 each A fascinating and authoritative record of four thousand years of Chinese art, the art forms being related to the context of their historical epochs. Well illustrated.

See also: 2, 3, 10, 12, 27, 39, 40, 41, 44, 47, 49, 61, 69, 93, 96, 101, 131, 246, 248, 251, 260, 268, 270, 275, 290, 291.

K. PACIFIC ISLANDS

240. Bergman, Sten.
Through Primitive New Guinea. Translated from the Swedish by Maurice Michael. London, Robert Hale, 1957. 191 p. $4.50 Travels in Dutch New Guinea, a picture of its Stone Age civilization, and its strange people and their surroundings, presented very engagingly by a Swedish naturalist.

241. Coulter, John Wesley.
The Pacific Dependencies of the United States. N.Y., Macmillan, 1957. 388 p. $6.75 Systematic survey of the Territories of the U. S. and The Trusteeship Territories; and a discussion of the subjects of human geography, history, social anthropology, and colonial administration.

242. Stewart, A. G.
Trophies from Cannibal Isles. Washington, D.C., Review and Herald, 1956. 256 p. $3.75 A Seventh-day Adventist's missionary experiences and a record of his and other missionaries' work in the South Pacific during the last fifty years.

243. Stimson, Frank J.
Songs and Tales of the Sea King; Interpretations of the Oral Literature of Polynesia. Salem, Mass., Peabody Museum, 1957. 237 p. $6.50 The texts of Polynesian songs and tales as well as two introductory essays by Van Wyk Brooks and Susanne McConnaughey - an excellent introduction into Polynesian ways of life and beliefs.

244. Strauss, Hermann.
Junge Kirche in Neuguinea. Neuendettelsau, Deutschland, Freimund-Verlag, 1958. 22 p. DM .50 A brief account of the story and task of the young church in New Guinea.

245. Tetens, Alfred.
Among the Savages of the South Seas. Memoirs of Micronesia, 1862-1868. Translated from the German by Florence Mann Spoehr. Stanford, Calif., Stanford University Press (London, Oxford University Press), 1958, 107 p. $3.75 Accurate and interesting observations on life in the exotic Yap and Palau Islands of the 1860's.

See also: 2, 3, 71, 95, 97, 106, 250.

L. AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND

See also: 2, 96.

M. GENERAL

246. Isaacs, Harold R.
Scratches on Our Minds; American Images of China and India. N.Y., John Day, 1958. 416 p. $6.75 Able and discerning inquiry into the ideas which Americans in general have about the people of China and India, and changes in opinion over several decades. A disturbing but important book.

247. Moraes, Frank.
Yonder One World; a Study of Asia and the West. N.Y., Toronto, London, Manila, MacMillan, 1958. 209 p. $3.75 An informed and broad-minded writer and leader in India appraises the situation in his home country and in Asia, especially in relation to western civilization, appealing to Nehru to dedicate his influence to mobilizing a decisive moral resistance to Communism.

248. Thomson, Ian.
The Rise of Modern Asia. N.Y., Toronto, London, Pitman Publishing Corporation, 1958. 265 p. $4.95 Modern Asia from Constantinople to Peking and from the beginning of the century to 1945. Despite the limitations of such a broad survey this is a highly interesting and readable volume.

See also: 101, 202.

VII. CHRISTIANITY AND NON-CHRISTIAN RELIGIONS; OTHER IDEOLOGIES

A. RELIGIONS OF PRIMITIVE PEOPLES

249. Evans-Pritchard, E. E.
Nuer Religion. Oxford, Clarendon Press, 1956. 336 p. 42/- The third book in a trilogy about the Nuer of Southern Sudan, this is a careful study of their religious thought and of their rituals.

250. Worsley, Peter.
The Trumpet Shall Sound; A Study of 'Cargo' Cults in Melanesia. London, MacGibbon & Kee, 1957. 290 p. 25/- The origin and history of a nationalistic movement which developed out of fertility rites and ancestor cults, beginning in 1885 in Fiji and spreading over the whole of Melanesia.

See also: 240, 308.

B. THE GREAT NON-CHRISTIAN RELIGIONS

251. Bellah, Robert N.
Tokugawa Religion; The Values of Pre-Industrial Japan. Glencoe, Ill., The Free Press, The Falcon's Wing Press, 1957. 249 p. $5.00 Through examination and exposition of religious values during the Tokugawa Era (1600-1868), the author attempts to explain the remarkable rapidity and success of Japan's industrialization following her two and one-half centuries of seclusion.

252. Concise History of Islam. Amsterdam, Djambatan, 1957. 36 p. $1.32 A summary of Islamic history with many maps, photographs, and other illustrations.

253. Dutt, Sukumar.
The Buddha and Five After Centuries. London, Luzac, 1957. 259 p. 45/- "An attempt to trace the many-sided developments of Buddhism in India during the first five centuries before the rise of the Mahayana."

254. Faucett, Lawrence.
The Young Gotama; a Realistic Reconstruction of the Early Life of Sakyamuni Showing the Spirituality and Gentleness of the Founder of Buddhism. Tokyo, Shinazaki Shorin, 1956. 106 p. ¥ 500 "Educational drama with more than ninety per cent of the lines taken from Buddhist scriptures." The selections are abridged and rearranged for dramatic purposes and are all very well documented.

255. Filliozat, Jean.
Dans les pas du Bouddha. Paris, Librairie Hachette, 1957. 127 p. $7.50 Beautiful collection of photographs in black and white together with a few exquisite color plates, showing the traces of Buddhism in India. Introductions and captions by Louis-Frederic.

256. Gambhirananda, Swami.
History of the Ramakrishna Math and Mission. Calcutta, Advaita Ashrama, 1957. 452 p. $5.00 "Tracing the development of the representative institutions of the Ramakrishna Math and Mission, the book primarily sets forth the actualization of the ideas and ideals taught by Shri Ramakrishna and Swami Vivekananda," a comparatively young revival of Hinduism which Isherwood in his foreword designated as "the most significant religious movement of our times."

257. Günther, Herbert.
Der Buddha und seine Lehre nach der Überlieferung der Theravadins. Zürich, Schweiz, Rascher Verlag, 1956. 460 p. $4.10 The life and teachings of the Buddha on the basis of the original texts, the Pali-canon, and related literature.

258. Historical Atlas of the Muslim Peoples. Amsterdam, Djambatan, 1957. 40 p. Fl. 27.50 Fifty-six maps show the expansion of Islam through the centuries and outline the rise and decline of Muslim states and dynasties.

259. Hoffmann, Helmut.
Die Religionen Tibets. Bon and Lamaismus in ihrer geschichtlichen Entwicklung. Freiburg, München, Deutschland, Karl Alber, 1956. 214 p. History of the religious development of a people which -- until recently -- was almost entirely cut off from communication with other countries.

260. K'ang, Yu-wei.
Ta T'ung Shu. The One-World Philosophy of K'and Yu-wei. Translated from the Chinese by Laurence G. Thompson. London, George Allen & Unwin, 1958. 300 p. 35/- K'ang Yu-wei (1857-1927) was a progressive Chinese scholar, leader of the Reform Movement of the 1890's. This is the first English translation of K'ang's most famous work, an original and daring "Utopia," with an excellent introduction on his life and thought.

261. Monteil, Vincent.
Les Musulmans Sovietiques. Paris, Éditions du Seuil, 1957. 191 p. Frs. 650 Life and culture of the Muslims in Soviet Russia today, the influence Marxism has on Islam and the story of how Muslims maintain their faith under present conditions.

262. Morgan, Kenneth W., ed.
Islam - the Straight Path; Islam interpreted by Muslims. N.Y., Ronald Press, 1958. 453 p. $6.00 Islam described and interpreted by eleven leading Muslim scholars; the third volume in a series initiated by the National Council on Religion in Higher Education.

263. Nebesky-Wojkowitz, René de.
Oracles and Demons of Tibet; the Cult and Iconography of the Tibetan Protective Deities. 'S-Gravenhage, The Netherlands, Mouton, 1956. 666 p. $14.00 Survey of the Tibetan guardian deities and their cult, "giving an insight into a little-known aspect of Lamaism," the book also provides facts regarding pre-Buddhist Tibet and the influence that beliefs out of these early times had on the development of the Bon religion.

264. Nikhilananda, Swami.
Hinduism: Its Meaning for the Liberation of the Spirit. (World Perspectives, v. 17) N.Y., Harper, 1958. 196 p. $4.00 Hinduism in both its theoretical and practical aspects written from a non-dualistic point of view, which the author conceives of as "the highest achievement of India's mystical insight and philosophical speculation, and her real contribution to world culture."

265. Percheron, Maurice.
Buddha and Buddhism. (Men of Wisdom Books) Translated from the French by Edmund Stapleton. N.Y., Harper (London, Longmans, Green), 1957. 191 p. $1.35 Interpretation of the central ideas of the many versions of Buddhism; handsomely illustrated.

266. Saint-Hilaire, J. Barthélemy.
Life and Legend of Buddha. Calcutta, Susil Gupta, 1957. 98 p. $3.25 A concise and readable little book on the origin of Buddhism, the legend of the Buddha, the Buddha's ideal, and the metaphysics of Buddhism.

267. Snellgrove, David.
Buddhist Himalaya; Travels and Studies in Quest of the Origins and Nature of Tibetan Religion. Oxford, England, Bruno Cassirer, 1957. 324 p. 35/- History of Buddhism from its earliest beginnings, description of the various developments which have led to present-day Tibetan Buddhism; with 74 illustrations, a chronological table, a good bibliography, a general index, and a Tibetan index.

268. Tsunoda, R., and others, comps.
Sources of the Japanese Tradition. (Records of Civilization, Sources and Studies, v. 54; Introduction to Oriental Civilizations, v. 1) N.Y., Columbia University Press, 1958. 928 p. $7.50 Extremely valuable compilation of source readings on the thought of the early Japanese about themselves, the world they lived in, and problems they faced. Attention is given to religious and philosophical developments as well as to political and social ideas which affect contemporary thought and life.

269. Van Gelder, Jeanette M.
Der Ātman in der Grossen-Wald-Geheimlehre. (Bṛhad-Āraṇyaka-Upaniṣad) 'S-Gravenhage, Mouton, 1957. 174 p. $4.75 Psychological study of the secret doctrine of "the big forest," concentrated on its central concept, the Ātman, often translated as "soul" or "self."

270. Van Nieuwenhuijze, C.A.O.
Aspects of Islam in Post-Colonial Indonesia. The Hague, Bandung, W. Van Hoeve, 1958. 248 p. $5.00 Collection of five essays on constitutive factors behind the dominant tendencies of Indonesian Islam, its structure as a socio-cultural phenomenon, a historical survey of Japanese Islam policy during the occupation of Java and Madura, and the problem of self-realization in Muslim thought today.

271. Yung Hsi.
Buddhism and the Chan School of China. Translated from the Chinese by Chou Hsiang-Kuang. Allahabad, India, Indo-Chinese Literature Publications, 1956. 27 p. $1.00 Lectures given in Hong Kong by a Chinese scholar of Chan (Dhyana) Buddhism, interpreting the teachings of the venerated Abbot Hso Yun. Well translated into English.

See also: 48, 54, 59, 135, 155, 166, 167, 177, 186, 207, 222.

C. JUDAISM

272. Ellison, H. L.
The Christian Approach to the Jew. (The Christian Approach Series, no. 2) London, Edinburgh House Press, 1958. 61 p. 2/6 Concise outline of the relationship of the Christian world to Jewry, with statistics of Jewish populations and a reading list for further studies.

See Also: 86, 158, 287, 289.

D. COMMUNISM

273. Dunayevskaya, Raya.
Marxism and Freedom...From 1776 Until Today. N.Y., Bookman Associates, 1958. 384 p. $6.00 This keen analytical study is based on the thesis that Marxism was a theory of liberation for the working classes while modern Communism has become a theory and practice of enslavement. The appendix contains the first publication in English of several early writings by Karl Marx.

274. Johnson, Hewlett.
Christians and Communism. London, Putnam, 1956. 148 p. 10/6 The pro-Communist Dean of Canterbury examines several topics of significance to Christianity and relates them to the teaching and practice of Communism.

275. Kautsky, John H.
Moscow and the Communist Party of India; a Study in the Postwar Evolution of International Communist Strategy. N.Y., John Wiley (London, Chapman and Hall), 1956. 220 p. $6.00 Systematic discussion of Communist strategies in their historical and international aspects with the purpose of assessing "the role played by the Soviets...in the formation of the strategy of the Communist Party of India."

276. Kirkpatrick, Evron M., ed.
Year of Crisis; Communist Propaganda Activities in 1956. N.Y., Macmillan, 1957. 414 p. $5.50 The story of a critical year in Communist activities throughout the world; a comprehensive and extremely useful handbook for both careful study and frequent reference. Do not underestimate the power of Communist tactics and propaganda.

277. Lewis, John.
Marxism & the Open Mind. London, Routledge and Kegan Paul, 1957. 222 p. 25/- Scholarly essays, combining a sympathetic understanding of Marxism as a dynamic philosophy and movement with critical judgment on its weaknesses. Especially interesting and also open to debate is the author's defense of the goals of Marxist ethics.

278. Marcuse, Herbert.
Soviet Marxism; a Critical Analysis. N.Y., Columbia University Press, 1958. 271 p. $4.50 Evaluation of some main trends of Soviet Marxism, starting from the theoretical premises, it "develops their ideological and sociological consequences and re-examines the premises in the light of these consequences."

279. Sabine, George H.
Marxism. Ithaca, N.Y., Cornell University Press, 1958. 60 p. $ .75 A learned critique of Marxism with references to matters of public policy and some discussion of its inner paradoxes. (The Terrulide Lectures at Cornell University.)

280. West, Charles C.
Communism and the Theologians; Study of an Encounter. London, SCM Press, 1958. 399 p. 35/- Scholarly analysis of the impact of Communist thought upon the minds of Brunner, Tillich, Niebuhr, Barth, and their disciples, together with the author's own Christian apologetic. An important book, in rather involved style. Will be published by Westminster Press, Philadelphia, in November 1958.

281. Wicks, H. M.
Eclipse of October. Chicago, Challenge Publishers, 1957. 464 p. $5.00 Written by a former Communist, this carefully documented volume describes the development of international Communism since 1914 and shows the distortions and betrayal of the original ideals of the Party.

See also: 26, 52, 107, 115, 128, 212, 238, 261, 289, 290.

E. GENERAL AND OTHER RELIGIONS

282. Cuttat, Jacques-Albert.
La Rencontre des Religions, avec une Étude sur la Spiritualité de l'Orient Chrétien. Paris, Aubier, 1957. 200 p. Fr. 600 The encounter of the great living religions is discussed from the viewpoint of both the risk and the ultimate value involved in such a study of comparative religions.

283. James, E. O.
History of Religions. N.Y., Harper, 1957. 237 p. $2.75 Discussion of the archeological and anthropological evidence relating to prehistory and history of religions in Europe, the Middle East, India, China and Japan, including a methodology on the study of religions.

284. Keel, John A.
Jadoo. N.Y., Julian Messner, 1957. 249 p. $3.95 An American author and journalist's search into the mysteries of Black Magic in the Orient and his experiences with jadoo-wallas and fakirs during his interviews.

285. Pande, Govind Chandra.
Studies in the Origins of Buddhism. (Ancient History Research Series, no. 1) Allahabad, India, University of Allahabad, 1957. 600 p. Rs. 25/- Tracing of the original teachings of the Buddha as distinct from the subsequent tradition, with an attempt to show the relevancy of the Buddha's doctrines for present times.

286. Parrinder, Geoffrey.
Witchcraft. Harmondsworth, England, Penguin Books, 1958. 208 p. 3/6 "A critical study of the belief in witchcraft from the records of witch hunting in Europe yesterday and Africa today."

287. Rhodes, Arnold Black, ed.
The Church Faces the Isms. N.Y., Abingdon Press, 1958. 304 p. $4.50 Written by members of the faculty of the Louisville Presbyterian Seminary under the above general editorship "to help Christians, especially leaders in the Church, to prepare themselves to deal effectively and fairly with specific organized and unorganized movements which challenge main-line Protestantism in particular ways."

288. Slotkin, J. S.
The Peyote Religion; a Study in Indian-White Relations. Glencoe, Ill., The Free Press, 1956. 195 p. $4.00 Monograph on the ethnohistory of Peyotism.

289. Smith, Huston.
The Religions of Man. N.Y., Harper, 1958. 328 p. $5.00 Description of the great living religions and their appeal to the people of different countries and cultures, with reading-lists for further study. Objective and readable.

See also: 68, 92, 94, 98, 109, 243.

VIII. SOCIAL AND POLITICAL SCIENCE

290. Bowles, Chester.
Ideas, People and Peace. N.Y., Harper, 1958. 151 p. $2.50 A noted American diplomat discusses the problems of the "uncommitted world," which appear more acute because of the Kremlin's new strategy, and what should be a "creative American response." News-reporting style and some rather broad generalizations.

291. Buck, Philip W., and Travis, Martin B., eds.
Control of Foreign Relations in Modern Nations. N.Y., W. W. Norton, 1957. 865 p. $6.75 Analysis of the machinery and methods of foreign policy today, written by various experts in the field of political science.

292. Campbell, John C.
Defence of the Middle East; Problems of American Policy. N.Y., Harper, 1958, 392 p. $5.00 A critical analysis of the complex political situation and problems in the Middle East, with conclusions for U. S. policy today in order to avert crises of tomorrow.

293. Clark, Grenville, and Sohn, Louis B.
World Peace Through World Law. Cambridge, Mass., Harvard University Press, 1958. 540 p. $7.50 "This book sets forth a comprehensive and detailed plan for the maintenance of world peace in the form of a proposed revision of the U. N. charter. In so doing the purpose is to contribute material for the world-wide discussions which must precede the establishment of truly effective institutions for the prevention of war."

294. DeConde, Alexander.
New Interpretations in American Foreign Policy. Washington, D.C., Service Center for Teachers of History, American Historical Association, 1957. 31 p. $ .50 Attempt to "review and explain some of the changes in the writing and teaching of history of American foreign policy in the past twenty years.

295. Goodfried, Arthur.
Two Sides of the World. Washington, D.C., Government Printing Office, 1957. 79 p. $ .50 "A report on an international discussion of human values in social change in South and Southeast Asia and in the United States...implications for Asian-American Cooperation, April 19-May 19, 1956."

296. Lawrence, John.
Hard Facts; a Christian Looks at the World. London, SCM Press, 1958. 63 p. 3/6 Concise little booklet on political, economic, and social problems which face society today.

297. Molteno, Donald B.
The Assault on Our Liberties. Johannesburg, South African Institute of Race Relations, 1958. n.p. The idea of freedom in South Africa is examined in the light of constitutional conceptions of civil liberties generally recognized in the West.

298. Myrdal, Gunnar.
Rich Lands and Poor; the Road to World Prosperity. (World Perspectives, v. 16) N.Y., Harper, 1957. 168 p. $2.25 The well-known Swedish political economist, author of An American Dilemma, presents an incisive discussion of the economic inequalities within and between nations and of the challenges presented by underdeveloped countries. A dynamic treatment of problems in the non-Soviet world.

299. Rubin, Vera, ed.
Caribbean Studies: A Symposium Kingston, Jamaica, B.W.I., Institute of Social and Economic Research, University College of the West Indies. 1957. 124 p. Various experts deal with the most urgent sociological and cultural problems of "Plantation America."

300. Salazar, Maria Christina.
A Socio-Religious Survey of the Parish of Christo Rey in Manizales, Colombia. (Studies in Sociology, no. 43) Washington, D.C., The Catholic University of America Press, 1957. 121 p. $1.50 Report on the results of a survey conducted with empirical research techniques on the extent of religious practices in a particular Colombian parish.

301. Schapera, I.
Government and Politics in Tribal Societies. London, Watts, 1956. 238 p. $5.25 A comparative study of the forms and functions of primitive governments of four separate groups of peoples living in South Africa -- Bushmen, Hottentots, Bergdama, and Southern Bantu.

302. Stone, Julius.
Aggression and World Order; a Critique of United Nations Theories of Aggression. Berkeley, Calif., University of California Press, 1958. 226 p. $5.00 Discussion of the development of new methods of resolving international conflicts and the lessons to be learned from old failures.

303. Strausz-Hupé, Robert, and Hazard, Harry W., eds.
The idea of Colonialism. The Foreign Policy Research Institute Series, no. 5) N.Y., Praeger, 1958. 496 p. $5.00 Fifteen essays by various scholars present facts and insights on the many problems of colonial government today.

304. Talbot, Phillips, and Poplai, S. L.
India and America; a Study of Their Relations. N.Y., Harper, 1958. 200 p. $3.75 An Indian and an American author set forth the result of a two-year research program conducted by the Council on Foreign Relations and the Indian Council of World Affairs, with the intent to exchange viewpoints of their respective countries on problems which concern them both.

305. Van der post, Laurens.
Race Prejudice as Self-Rejection; an Inquiry into the Psychological and Spiritual Aspects of Group Conflicts. N.Y., The Workshop for Cultural Democracy, 1957. 29 p. $ .50 Famous writer, explorer, and administrator discusses in these American lectures the need for deeper psychological understanding between races as a means of avoiding disaster in our increasingly complex world.

See also: 76, 82, 104, 107, 111, 114, 117, 118, 120, 129, 133, 144, 148, 181, 183, 191, 198, 207, 221, 223, 229, 230, 231, 241, 248, 249, 251, 276.

IX. ANTHROPOLOGY AND RELATED SUBJECTS

306. Bacon, Elizabeth E.
Obok; a Study of Social Structure in Eurasia. (Viking Fund Publications in Anthropology, no. 25) N.Y., Wenner-Gren Foundation for Anthropological Research, 1958. 235 p. $4.00 Social structure and its dynamic processes among the Hazara Mongols and their cultural relatives, and a description of the "obok" structure in Western Eurasia and East Asia.

307. Meggers, Betty J., and Evans, Clifford.
Archaeological Investigations at the Mouth of the Amazon. (Smithsonian Institution, Bureau of American Ethnology, Bulletin 167) Washington, D.C., Government Printing Office, 1957. 664 p. plus 112 plates. Background of the Lower Amazon Archaeological Expedition and detailed report on the findings in the territories of Amapa, Maeajo Island, and the islands of Mexiana and Caviana, with many textual illustrations, maps, and pictures.

308. Montagu, M. F. Ashley.
Anthropology and Human Nature. Boston, Mass., Porter Sargent, 1957. 390 p. $6.00 Essays on problems faced in the field of anthropology today, dealt with from a viewpoint which cuts across the boundaries of the sciences and humanities in order to gain a better understanding of human nature.

309. Osborne, Douglas.
Excavations in the McNary Reservoir Basin Near Umatilla, Oregon River Basin Surveys Paper, no. 8. (Smithsonian Institution, Bureau of American Ethnology, Bulletin 166) Washington, D.C., Government Printing Office, 1957. 258 p. $1.75 Detailed report describing the findings of the excavations and analyzing their cultural materials, with photographs of the excavation grounds and actual findings.

See also: 151, 240, 301.

X. THEOLOGICAL, WORSHIP AND DEVOTIONAL

310. Allshorn, Florence.
The Notebooks of Florence Allshorn. Selected and Arranged by a Member of St. Julian's Community. London, SCM Press, 1957. 128 p. 8/6 Extracts from the notebooks of the one-time Principal of the Women's Training College for the Church Missionary Society, reflecting her views on God, Faith, love, salvation, etc.

311. At the Foot of the Cross; Lenten Meditations by an Imprisoned Pastor Behind the Iron Curtain. Minneapolis, Minn., Augsburg Publishing House, 1958. 210 p. $3.00 "Out of experiences of human suffering come fresh insights into the meaning of the sufferings and death of Christ."

312. De Dietrich, Suzanne.
The Witnessing Community; the Biblical Record of God's Purpose. Philadelphia, The Westminster Press, 1958. 180 p. $3.75 Tracing the themes of election, separation, and mission in the patriarchal stories and using the methods of Biblical theology, the author, a member of the Reformed Church of France, presents a record of the mission of God's people in every age.

313. The Passion in Africa. With an Introduction by John Taylor and 24 Photographs by Hans Leuenberger. London, Mowbray, 1957. 25/- Bible text, words of the spirituals sung, and remarkable photographs taken during the performance of the Passion Play by Africans at Mukono in Uganda, during Holy Week of 1954.

314. Presler, Henry H.
The Missionary Suite; Words (with Biblical Excerpts) and Music. Privately printed in the U.S.A., 1958. 96 p. $1.50 Biblical texts set to music with an introduction by the composer.

315. Seventh-day Adventists Answer Questions on Doctrine; an Explanation of Certain Major Aspects of Seventh-day Adventist Belief. Washington, D.C., Review and Herald Publishing Association, 1957. 720 p. Representative Adventist leaders answer questions concerning Seventh-day Adventist doctrine, taking a clear stand with reference to some popular misconceptions of their beliefs. The book includes a statement on the Adventist relationship to the World missions program.

316. Sundström, Erland, and others.
Jag Tror På....Studir i trons grunfrågor. Stockholm, Missionsförbundets Förlag, 1957. 63 p. Kr. 3/50 Some attempted answers to fundamental questions in Christian dogmatics in relation to missions, by various Swedish scholars.

317. Thomas, M. A.
Meditations of an Indian Christian. London, SCM Press, 1958. 76 p. 5/- Seventy-six prayers and meditations, briefly and beautifully phrased, evidence of India's spiritual gifts to Christendom.

318. Wang, Leland.
The Arrows of the Lord. N.Y., Loizeaux Brothers, 1958. 55 p. $ .70 Meditations and messages based on Gospel passages by the head of the Chinese Foreign Missionary Union in South East Asia.

319. Wilson, Jesse R.
Light in a Dark World. Grand Rapids, Mich., Grand Rapids International Publications, 1957. 80 p. $1.50 Handsome booklet presenting devotional passages with pictures, mostly taken from the files of the American Baptist Foreign Mission Society.

320. World Crisis and the Catholic. N.Y., Sheed & Ward, 1958. 228 p. $3.00 The Catholic answer to the questions arising out of the technological, scientific, political, economic, and religious crises of our day.

See also: 14, 280.

XI. PUBLICATIONS OF THE MISSIONARY RESEARCH LIBRARY

January-June, 1958

Occasional Bulletin. Published ten to sixteen times a year at the nominal subscription rate of $1.00 for the calendar year. No additional charge for postage, domestic or foreign. Volume IX, 1958:

No. 1. Let Us Obey Him, by Dr. Donald Black. $ .15
No. 2. Indonesian and the Indonesia Church in Today's World, by Winburn T. Thomas. With a Select Bibliography. $ .15
No. 3. The Denominational Missionary and the Organization Man, by Paul D. Clasper. $ .15
No. 4. World Christian and Missionary Statistics, by Frank W. Price. $ .25
No. 5. Centers of Vitality in Contemporary Hinduism, by R. Pierce Beaver. Bibliography, compiled by Werner Rode. $ .15
No. 6. North American Indians and Protestant Missions Among Them, by Kenyon E. Moyer. With a Selected and Annotated Reading List. $ .15

Book Notes. Issued monthly. Free to subscribers or upon request.

1958 issues: January, Southern Asia; February, Mid-Winter Miscellany; March, Africa; April, International and Intercultural Relations; May, Religions: History and Impact on Culture; June, Biographies.

Selected List of Current Books and Pamphlets, July-December, 1957. $ .50

A Survey of Mission Board Policies With Relation to Missionary Personnel, compiled by Austin M. Warner. Three Parts. Circulation limited to Mission Boards cooperating in the study. A summary is being prepared for general distribution.

PACIFIC SCHOOL

Stockton, Calif.

GTU Library
3 2400 00645 5889

FOR REFERENCE

NOT TO BE TAKEN FROM THIS ROOM